Additional Schedule Notes:

- Wake Forest is an astounding 23-7 at home since the start of the 2019 season thanks to the incredible atmosphere created by Wake Forest's fans and students inside Allegacy Stadium over the past few seasons.
- Since the turn of the century, the Demon Deacons boast a record of 32-26 against UNC, NC State and Duke. In addition, during that time, Wake Forest is 47-26 against all in-state opponents. The Deacs lead the Big Four in winning percentage against each other during that period.
- Wake Forest is playing all four North Carolina schools for the sixth time in Coach Dave Clawson's tenure in 2024.
 - Wake Forest won the Big 4 Championship in 2019.
- A road game at NC State continues the second-longest continuously played series in major college football and the longest in the ACC. The series has been played every year since 1910.
 - New scheduling model protected Wake Forest's annual rivalry with NC State.
- First-ever meeting in Coach Clawson's tenure against Miami.
 - Last time WF played the Hurricanes was in 2013.
- Third-ever meeting in program history against Ole Miss.
 - Previous matchups were in 2006 and 2008.
- Originally scheduled to host UConn, but they agreed to allow us to play at their place and we will host traditional Sun Belt power Louisiana.

Dave CLAWSON

Head Coach

11th Year

Dave Clawson, who was named Wake Forest University's 32nd head football coach on Dec. 10, 2013, has set a new standard for Wake Forest football as he heads into his 11th season in Winston-Salem in 2024. Clawson, who was named as an American Football Coaches Association Board of Trustee member on Jan. 10, 2022, signed a multi-year contract extension with Wake Forest on Nov. 26, 2021 and has achieved unparalleled success as the leader of the Demon Deacons football program.

Specifically, since the start of the 2016 season, the Deacs have the third-most wins in the ACC not counting the COVID-shortened 2020 season. Additionally, the Demon Deacons are in the winningest stretch of football in their program's history with Clawson's teams owning five the program's top-five win totals in program history over a five-year span.

1. 38 Wins (2017-21); 2. 37 Wins (2018-22); 3. 36 Wins (2004-08 & 2006-10); 5. 35 Wins (2019-23); 6. 34 Wins (2016-20); 7. 33 Wins (2015-19); 8. 31 Wins (1944-48); 9. 30 Wins (1940-44).

All that winning has led to record-setting crowds, multiple sellouts and the best student attendance in school history, which has given the Demon Deacons a huge edge when playing at home inside Allegacy Stadium. Wake holds a 23-7 (.767) record in home contests since the start of the 2019 season, which included a program-record 11-game winning streak spanning from the 2020 to 2022 seasons. With that, the Deacs' 76.7 percent win rate ranks third in the ACC during that time period (2019-23).

That aforementioned win streak featured a perfect 6-0 record at home in 2021, which was Wake Forest's first undefeated home record since 1979 and that fall marked just the third time since the Deacs' 1970 ACC Championship team to go unbeaten inside Allegacy Stadium. Meanwhile, six home wins in 2021 tied the program record that Clawson's 2019 squad had previously set.

Over the last eight seasons since 2016, the Demon Deacons have found a winning formula in one-score ball games by capturing multiple more wins by one score in six of those seasons with a total of 21 victories in 38 such games. Coach Clawson's squads hold the fourth-best winning percentage in the ACC in those games during that span.

In the stands, Wake Forest has sold out nine home games since 2021 and over the course of its six home games during the 2023 season, Allegacy Stadium hosted an average of 3,511 students and 30,498 fans – both tallies are the highest on record. With that, all the aforementioned victories are due to having great players who perform well each week. The Deacs 54 All-ACC honors is the fifth most overall in the ACC since the 2019 season and Wake Forest is one of just six schools to have more than 50 honorees in that time span.

Over the course of his tenure at Wake Forest, Coach Clawson's staff has had six student-athletes (Cam Serigne, TE: 2014, 2015, 2016; Dom Maggio, P: 2016, 2017, 2019; Greg Dortch, 2017: All-Purpose, 2017: Return Specialist, 2018: All-Purpose, 2018: Return Specialist; Essang Bassey, CB: 2017, 2018, 2019; Nick Sciba, K: 2019, 2020, 2021; Michael Jurgens, OL: 2021, 2022, 2023) earn All-ACC honors at least three times during their careers. While Greg Dortch is the only four-time honoree in program history. Overall, there are only 15 players in program history who have ever accomplished this feat of at least three all-conference accolades.

During the Deacs run of seven-straight bowl appearances from 2016-22, which was the second-longest streak in the ACC, tied for the 10th longest in the country, and was the longest in Wake Forest lore with the previous best at just three consecutive years, Coach Clawson's program defeated two SEC teams (Texas A&M, 2017; Missouri, 2022) and a Big Ten program (Rutgers, 2021) across those postseason games. Overall, Clawson has earned five bowl victories at Wake Forest, which is the most in school history, and is tied for fifth in ACC history for postseason wins. He ranks behind Bobby Bowden (Florida State, 11), Dabo Swinney (Clemson, 11), Frank Beamer (Virginia Tech, 6) and Danny Ford (Clemson, 6). Meanwhile, Clawson enters the 2024 season tied with Jimbo Fisher (Florida State, 5) and Ralph Friedgen (Maryland, 5).

Overall during his decade in Winston-Salem, Clawson is a perfect 4-0 against teams from the SEC. Additionally with a pair of victories against Vanderbilt and Mizzou in 2022, he led the Deacs to a pair of victories over Southeastern Conference foes in the same season for the first since 2008 and the second time in program history.

The 2021 and 2022 campaigns in Winston-Salem featured a number of program firsts and records. Specifically during that two-year span, Wake Forest went 19-8 and that win total over two seasons was the second-highest in program history (21, 2006-07) and it was tied for the ninth-best mark in all of the Power 5. After climbing into the top 10 of the Associated Press and Amway Coaches Poll in 2021 and 2022, Wake Forest was one of just 17 programs to achieve a top-10 ranking in each of those campaigns. The Deacs climbed to ninth in 2021 and ranked 10th in 2022, both the highest rankings in program history. Additionally, the Deacs were tabbed No. 9 in the country by the College Football Playoff Poll on Nov. 2, 2021. Also, Wake Forest ended the 2021 season ranked No. 15 in the Associated Press Poll, which marked the highest ranking to end a season in program history.

A 6-1 start to the 2022 season, including three-straight home sellout crowds inside Allegacy Stadium and a top-10 ranking, highlighted Wake Forest's season that fall. The three sellouts marked Wake Forest's longest-consecutive run since 2011 and the first time since 2006 that the Deacs hosted a capacity crowd during the month of September. Additionally, quarterback Sam Hartman was named the ACC's Brian Piccolo Award winner as he set the ACC record for career touchdown passes late that season and the Demon Deacons had 12 players earn All-ACC honors.

In 2021, the Demon Deacons won the Atlantic Coast Conference Atlantic Division title and the 2021 TaxSlayer Gator Bowl Championship. After leading the Deacs to a program-record tying 11-3 record, including a school-best 7-1 mark in ACC play, Clawson was named the 2021 ACC Coach of the Year by the ACC and the Associated Press. It marked the ninth time a Wake Forest head coach has been honored as the ACC Football Coach of the Year and the first since 2006. Clawson was the seventh Wake Forest head coach to win the award. Others who won the award were Jim Grobe (2006), Bill Dooley (1992 and 1987), John Mackovic (1979), Cal Stoll (1970), William Tate (1964) and Paul Amen (1959 and 1955).

Individually, the Coach of the Year honor marked his fifth-career accolade. Clawson was the Patriot League Coach of the Year in 2001 and 2002 at Fordham and was awarded the 2005 Atlantic 10 Coach of the Year award and 2007 Colonial Athletic Association Coach of the Year honor at Richmond.

Nationally in 2021, Clawson was a semifinalist for George Munger Collegiate Coach of the Year and a finalist for the Paul "Bear" Bryant and Bobby Dodd National Coach of the Year awards. Prior to earning those accolades, Clawson was the 2002 Schutt Sports/American Football Monthly I-AA Coach of the Year and a finalist for the Eddie Robinson Award. In 2005, Clawson earned National Coach of the Year from I-AA.org and was again a finalist for the Eddie Robinson Award.

Additionally during his tenure at Wake Forest, Clawson led the Deacs to their eighth Big 4 Championship in 2019. Clawson has the third-most wins in school history and is 63-61 in his decade-long tenure with the Demon Deacons. He is one of just five head coaches in program history to have a winning record in his coaching career at Wake Forest and the first since D.C. "Peahead" Walker (77-51-6; 1937-50).

Clawson and offensive coordinator Warren Ruggiero have engineered an offense that has rewritten the record books at Wake Forest. The Deacons have set nearly 400 school records including marks for points scored, points per game, total offensive yards, first downs and passing yards from 2017-22. Also, the Deacs were the only football program in the ACC to average at least 30 points per game each year during that aforementioned six-year span. That run ranks as the fourth longest in ACC history.

Specifically in 2021, Wake Forest scored a program-best 574 points and averaged a school-record 41.0 ppg. That point total ranks 43rd in modern FBS history and the fourth-most in ACC history. Additionally, Wake Forest became just the 20th ACC team in the college football modern era (Post-WWII) to cross over the milestone of 500 points scored in a single season. Individually, the Deacons topped 35 points in a game 12 times during the 2021 campaign. In the College Football Playoff Era, Wake Forest is one of seven teams (2014 Oregon, 2018 Alabama, 2018 Oklahoma, 2019 Alabama, 2019 LSU, 2020 Alabama) to accomplish that feat in a single season.

Individually on offense under Ruggiero and Clawson's tutelage, three quarterbacks at Wake Forest have earned All-ACC honors when they were a starter (John Wolford, 2017; Jamie Newman, 2019; Sam Hartman, 2021 & 2022).

Unique due to the tremendous leadership of Clawson and his staff, Wake Forest is the only school in the country to score at least a 990 on the latest Academic Progress Report, Graduation Success Rate and play in a bowl game in seven of the last eight years under the same head coach. Additionally, Wake Forest is one of only six (Duke, Northwestern Stanford, Notre Dame, Vanderbilt) FBS schools with an overall GSR of greater than 96 in each of the past four reports.

Finally, Wake Forest football has undergone a facilities transformation following the tremendous success of the Demon Deacons football program over the last 10 years as $150 million has been invested into the Deacs' world class facilities. The latest investment was a $38 million dollar facility, the McCreary Football Complex. This facility is 60,000 new square feet adjoining the existing McCreary Football Field House and Sutton Sports Performance Center. It includes locker space for 130 student-athletes, player lounge with a nutrition station, recovery area, entertainment area, football athletic training/treatment space, equipment center and loading dock and a multipurpose space seating up to 200 for team meals, meetings, functions and other activities.

Other new facilities during Coach Clawson's tenure include the opening of the aforementioned Sutton Sports Performance Center in the fall of 2019 and the McCreary Football Field House in 2016. The SSPC gave Wake football a state-of-the-art facility that features a world-class strength and conditioning complex to go with 16,000 square feet of space for coaches' offices, recruiting space and team meeting areas as well as a specialized nutrition center. Meanwhile, the McCreary Football Field House is an 80,000-square foot structure that features a 120-yard football field and adjoins the Doc Martin Practice Fields.

Clawson came to Winston-Salem after five seasons as the head coach at Bowling Green State University where he led the Falcons to the 2013 Mid-American Conference championship with a 47-27 win over No. 16 Northern Illinois.

In his 24 years as a head coach, Clawson has delivered a conference championship at each of his first three stops. Prior to the 2013 MAC title, Clawson helped Richmond to a pair of Colonial Athletic Association titles in 2005 and 2007. His first championship as a head coach came in 2002 when he led Fordham to the Patriot League title.

Clawson is the only active Division I head coach to win four conference championships in four different Division I leagues. Overall, he has compiled an impressive 153 wins in his head coaching career, which ranks 14th amongst active FBS head coaches.

A 1989 graduate of Williams College in Massachusetts, Clawson earned a degree in political economy and played defensive back.

Clawson and his wife, Catherine, are the parents of two children, Courtney and Eric.

Wake Forest (2014-Present)Overview

Dave Clawson has continued the success of former head coach Jim Grobe (2001-13) as Wake Forest has been the top program in the state of North Carolina this century.

Since the turn of the century, the Demon Deacons boast a record of 32-26 against UNC, NC State and Duke. In addition during that time, Wake Forest is 46-26 against all in-state opponents. The Deacs lead the Big Four in winning percentage against each other during that period.

Wake Forest, who won the 2006 ACC Championship title, holds the unique distinction of being the only North Carolina school to claim the title in the Championship era. Additionally, the Demon Deacons and Tar Heels are the only program from the state to qualify for multiple league title games (WF: 2006, 2021; UNC: 2015, 2022) and the Deacs are the only North Carolina school to win the now defunct Atlantic Division.

Wake Forest is the only Big Four school to record 11 wins in a single season twice (2006, 2021) this century. The Demon Deacons are one just seven Atlantic Coast Conference programs to achieve this mark as a member institution of the league

Specifically, since the start of the 2016 season, the Deacs have the third-most wins in the ACC not counting the COVID-shortened 2020 season. Additionally, the Demon Deacons are in the winningest stretch of football in their program's history with Clawson's teams owning five the program's top-five win totals in program history over a five-year span.

1. 38 Wins (2017-21); 2. 37 Wins (2018-22); 3. 36 Wins (2004-08 & 2006-10); 5. 35 Wins (2019-23); 6. 34 Wins (2016-20); 7. 33 Wins (2015-19); 8. 31 Wins (1944-48); 9. 30 Wins (1940-44)

All that winning has led to record-setting crowds, multiple sellouts and the best student attendance in school history, which has given the Demon Deacons a huge edge when playing at home inside Allegacy Stadium. Wake holds a 23-7 (.767) record in home contests since the start of the 2019 season, which included a program-record 11-game winning streak spanning from the 2020 to 2022 seasons. With that, the Deacs' 76.7 percent win rate ranks third in the ACC during that time period (2019-23).

Wake Forest only returned 11 starters from its bowl champion 2022 squad and rode the highs and lows with many student-athletes playing major roles for the first time in their careers. The team persevered throughout the season and won three home games during the season and earned a road victory at Old Dominion.

- The Deacs opened the 2023 season with a 37-17 win over Elon.
 - Dating back to 2000, Wake Forest has won its last 18 games and has gone undefeated against non-Power-5 North Carolina schools since 2000.
- The Deacs opened the 2023 season with a 37-17 win over Elon.
- With the 36-20 win over Vanderbilt in Week 2, the Deacs have five wins over the Commodores since the start of the 2007 season.
- Wake Forest won at Old Dominion in Week 3 with a 27-24 comeback win.
 - The victory marked the Deacs' seventh-straight over a program from the state of Virginia dating back to the 2020 season. Over that win streak, the Demon Deacons have outscored Virginia teams 247-142.
- The win over ODU also clinched Wake Forest's 12th-straight non-conference victory. That tally was the second-longest in the country at the time before the streak was snapped at Notre Dame on Nov. 18, 2023.
- Wake Forest trailed by 17 points in its win at Old Dominion. With that, the Demon Deacons second-half comeback marked the program's largest since Nov. 11, 2017 at Syracuse.
 - In that contest, Wake Forest also trailed by 17 points and went onto win, 64-43.
 - The 17-point come-from-behind win was tied for sixth in Wake Forest history and tied with the aforementioned 2017 contest at Syracuse for the second-largest in the Dave Clawson era.
- The Deacs downed Pitt 21-17 at home on Oct. 21, 2023 and that win marked Wake Forest's first victory over the Panthers in program history.
- Six Wake Forest football players earned All-Atlantic Coast Conference honors following the 2023 season. The 2023 season marked the seventh-consecutive season the Demon Deacons have had six or more players make the All-ACC teams.
 - The Deacs 54 All-ACC honors is the fifth most overall in the ACC since the 2019 season and Wake Forest is one of just six schools to have more than 50 honorees in that time span.
 - Redshirt senior offensive lineman Michael Jurgens and junior defensive back Malik Mustapha both earned Second Team All-ACC Honors. This was the third time in his Wake Forest career that Jurgens has been named an All-ACC honoree. Junior defensive lineman Jasheen Davis was named Third Team All-ACC. Additionally, redshirt junior offensive lineman DeVonte Gordon, redshirt junior defensive lineman Kevin Pointer and sophomore running back Demond Claiborne all earned honorable mention recognition from the voters. Jasheen Davis recorded at least 0.5 tackles-for-loss in the 20 of his last 21 games to end the 2023 season. Over the last two seasons, Davis has collected 30.0 tackles for loss and 14.5 sacks. With 7.5 sacks in 2023, Davis has now tallied 20.0 sacks in his career and that ranks fifth in program history:

1. Mike McCrary (1989-92) 30.0
2. Calvin Pace (1999-02) 29.0
3. Duke Ejiofor (2014-17) 23.5
4. Carlos Basham, Jr. (2017-20) 20.5
5. Jasheen Davis (2020-Present) 20.0

- Wake Forest hosted four sellout crowds and a total of 182,990 fans across the Deacs six home contests. Overall with an average crowd of 30,498 in attendance at each home game inside Allegacy Stadium, the 2023 season marked the first time since 2011 that Wake averaged that many fans per contest. Additionally, Wake Forest's student attendance for the season was above 21,000 and multiple games featured at least 80 percent of the student body in attendance.

- The Demon Deacons started three quarterbacks under-center during the 2023 season.

- Redshirt junior Michael Kern started the final two games of the season at Notre Dame and Syracuse. Over the course of those two contests, he went 28-of-44 for 342 yards and three touchdowns through the air with all three passing touchdowns coming against Syracuse and the longest completion of his career with a 59-yard strike to Taylor Morin in the fourth quarter against the Orange.

- Kern became the seventh starting QB in the Dave Clawson era:

- Santino Marucci - Oct. 21, 2023 vs. Pitt:
 - Marucci threw for 151 yards as he went 12-of-21 with one touchdown pass against Pitt inside Allegacy Stadium hitting redshirt junior Cameron Hite with just seven seconds remaining to earn a comeback 21-17 victory over Pitt to garner its first ACC win of the season on Homecoming Weekend.

- Mitch Griffiths - Sept. 1, 2022 vs. VMI:
 - In Week 1 of the 2022 season, Griffiths went 21-of-29 for 288 yards and three touchdowns against VMI. His 72.4 percent in a first career start is the second-best in school history and the best mark since 2006. Also, Griffiths' three touchdown passes against VMI were the second most by a Wake Forest quarterback in his first career start.

- Jamie Newman - Nov. 8, 2018 at No. 14 NC State:
 - Newman led the Deacons to come from-behind 27-23 win with game-winning 2-minute drill at No. 14 NC State. He hit TE Jack Freudenthal with a 32-yard pass with 30 seconds left to secure the win for Wake Forest. Overall, Newman completed 22-of-33 passes for 297 yards and three touchdowns and became third QB in school history to throw three TD passes in first career start, joining Keith West vs Vanderbilt (1990) and Norm Snead vs. Maryland (1958).

- Santino Marucci - Oct. 21, 2023 vs. Pitt:
 - Marucci threw for 151 yards as he went 12-of-21 with one touchdown pass against Pitt inside Allegacy Stadium hitting redshirt junior Cameron Hite with just seven seconds remaining to earn a comeback 21-17 victory over Pitt to garner its first ACC win of the season on Homecoming Weekend.
- Sam Hartman - Aug. 30, 2018 at Tulane:
 - Hartman had the best statistical debut in school history when he completed 31-of-51 passes for 378 yards (.608 completion percentage) and two touchdowns in an overtime win at Tulane in 2018 the season-opener. Hartman became the first Wake true freshman QB to win a season-opener. All his passing marks were school-bests for a true freshman in their first career start.
- Kendall Hinton - Sept. 26, 2015 at Indiana:
 - As a freshman, Hinton made his first career start vs. Indiana and had 245 passing yards and completed 19 passes with one touchdown. Hinton also rushed 22 times for 57 yards with two touchdowns.
- John Wolford - Aug. 28, 2014 at ULM:
 - Wolford became the first true freshman quarterback to start a season-opener in program history and he finished with 97 passing yards, five away from Solomon Everett's 1974 record of 102 for a true freshman in a debut. Wolford also became the first true freshman to complete better than 50 percent of his passes (12-of-22) in his first start.
- Defensively, Wake Forest took a major step forward in 2023 in the second season of defensive coordinator's Brad Lambert scheme.
 - Through the regular season, the Demon Deacons have been one of the best defenses in the country, receiving an overall grade of 84.8 from PFF which ranks 45th nationally. Additionally, PFF has the Deacs ranked in the top-50 in run defense (82.4).
 - Wake Forest has been one of the best teams in the country in redzone defense as the Deacs are tied for 22nd nationally with just 76.9 percent of opponent redzone trips resulting in a score. Additionally just 20 of the 39 opponent red zone tries (51.3 pct.)

ended in a touchdown.

- The Wake Forest defense made a staple of getting off the field early in drives with 43 3-and-outs. Overall for the season, Wake Forest has forced its opponents into three-and-outs on 28.5 percent of opponents drives (43-of-142).

2022

- Wake Forest football's mantra for the 2022 season was "MINDSET" as the Demon Deacons looked to follow up its historic year in 2021.
 - The Deacs won eight games in a season for just the 10th time in the 115-year history of the program.
 - Four of the 10 eight-win seasons have come in the Dave Clawson era (40 percent).
 - The Gasparilla Bowl victory over Missouri marked Wake Forest's first ever win over Missouri.
 - Additionally, the Deacs moved to 3-0 against SEC opponents in the Clawson era.
 - With the win over Missouri on Friday and a victory in Week 2 at Vanderbilt, Wake Forest defeated two programs from the Southeastern Conference this fall for the first time since 2008, and just the second time in program history the Deacs accomplished this feat in a single season.
- Sam Hartman was named the Most Valuable Player of the 2022 Union Home Mortgage Gasparilla Bowl.
 - Hartman earned his second-straight bowl game MVP honor, as he garnered the accolade following his standout performance against Rutgers in the TaxSlayer Gator Bowl in 2021.
 - Hartman became the first player in program history to earn two bowl game MVPs in their career at Wake Forest.
- The 2022 Union Home Mortgage Gasparilla Bowl marked Wake Forest's seventh-straight bowl appearance, a new school record.
 - Additionally, the Demon Deacons' streak is the second-longest active streak in the ACC and the 12th longest in the nation.
- Wake Forest finished the 2022 season averaging 36.1 points per game, helping the Deacs post its sixth consecutive season of averaging 30 or more points a game. This is the longest active streak and the fourth longest in ACC history.
- Wake Forest threw for a team-record 43 touchdowns as a team.
 - Hartman completed 270-of-428 passes (63.1%) for 3,701 yards and 38 touchdowns and was named the ACC's Brian Piccolo Award Winner.
 - Hartman broke the Wake Forest all-time passing mark against Liberty in Week 3, eclipsing Riley Skinner (2006-09). Additionally, he became the ACC career leader in passing touchdowns (110) in the Gasparilla Bowl vs. Mizzou.
- Another record holder is Perry, as he ended his Wake Forest career with a program record 28 touchdown receptions.
 - Sam Hartman and A.T. Perry finished their Wake Forest careers as one of the top QB-WR duos in conference history. The pair has combined for 27 touchdowns, which is tied for the second most in ACC history.

- Ryan Smenda, Jr., who Clawson named as a captain prior to the season, had a career-high 117 tackles in 2022 and it marked the most in a single season by a Demon Deacon since 2006. He finished his career ranked eighth all-time in program history (355).
- Allegacy Stadium hosted a total of 210,350 fans across the Deacs seven home contests last fall and a school-record 23,643 students attended games this past fall.
 - Week-By-Week Notes:
 - In Week 1 on Sept. 1 vs. VMI, 3,752 Wake Forest students attended the Demon Deacons seismic win. That total marked the highest student attendance in an Opening Night since at least 2008.
 - Wake Forest's game vs. Army was sold out, which marked the first time since 2011 that Wake Forest has had three-straight home sellouts.
 - The Liberty and Clemson sellouts mark the first two sellouts inside Allegacy Stadium in the month of Sept. since 2006.
 - Overall, the Clemson game was just the fourth sellout in the month of September this century.
 - Allegacy Stadium hosted a near-sellout crowd (31,346) and 4,024 Wake Forest students when North Carolina visited Allegacy Stadium on Nov. 12.

- Wake Forest's mantra in 2021 was, "Good to Great," as Coach Clawson and the staff looked to take the next step as a program.
- The 2021 Wake Forest football team capped off its historic season on New Year's Eve, defeating Big Ten foe Rutgers in the 77th annual TaxSlayer Gator Bowl 38-10 inside TIAA Bank Field in Jacksonville.
- Redshirt sophomore quarterback Sam Hartman ended his historic single-season campaign with Gator Bowl MVP honors. The Charlotte, N.C. native tossed three touchdown passes in the game and threw for 304 yards.
- Wake Forest (11-3, 7-1 ACC) became just the second team in program history to win double-digit games and tied the program record with 11 victories while also setting a program record with seven conference victories and finished the home season with a perfect 6-0 mark. WFU went 5-3 on the season in road or neutral site games for the first time since 2018.
- Additionally with a perfect 6-0 mark this season, the Deacs recorded their first undefeated home record for the first time since 1979 and just the third time since Wake Forest's 1970 ACC Championship team. Meanwhile, six home wins ties the program record that was set in 2019.
- Wake Forest was one of 10 Power-5 schools in 2021 to win 11 games.
- The Demon Deacons were also the first school in the conference to become bowl eligible with a perfect mark of 6-0 in 2021. The Deacs 8-0 start to the season was the best in school history in addition to having the longest winning streak in school history.

- Coach Clawson was named the 2021 ACC Coach of the Year by the ACC and the Associated Press. It marked the ninth time a Wake Forest head coach has been honored as the ACC Football Coach of the Year and the first since 2006.
- Clawson is the seventh Wake Forest head coach to win the award. Others who won the award were Jim Grobe (2006), Bill Dooley (1992 and 1987), John Mackovic (1979), Cal Stool (1970), William Tate (1964) and Paul Amen (1959 and 1955).
- OFFENSIVE NOTES:
 - Wake Forest topped 35 points in a game 12 times during the season. In the College Football Playoff Era, the Demon Deacons are one of seven teams (2014 Oregon, 2018 Alabama, 2018 Oklahoma, 2019 Alabama, 2019 LSU, 2020 Alabama) to accomplish that feat.
 - The Demon Deacons scored a combined 574 points during the 2021 season. Wake Forest became the first team in program history to cross over the 500-point mark. That point total ranks 43rd in FBS history and the fourth-most in ACC history. Additionally, Wake Forest became just the 20th ACC team in the college football modern era (Post-WWII) to cross over the milestone of 500 points scored in a single season.
 - Wake Forest's program record 574 points ranks seventh in ACC history for points scored in a single season.
 - Wake Forest set a program record by averaging 41.0 points per game and Wake Forest is now the only school in the Atlantic Coast Conference to average at least 30 points per game over the past five seasons.
 - The Demon Deacons set a program record for total yards with 6,550 yards of offense this fall. The average of 467.9 yards per game was also a new program record.
 - Wake Forest reset its program mark for first downs with 354 in 2021.
 - The Deacons air attack set a new program record by 555 yards, as Wake Forest passed for 4,303 yards during the season. Wake Forest set a new mark with an average of 307.4 ypg. through the air, which is the first such season in program lore with an average over 300 ypg.
 - Five student-athletes accounted for a Dave Clawson-era record 31 rushing touchdowns. That total is the most since 2003 and tied for the second-most all-time in Wake Forest history. The Deacs set a program record of completions (302), pass attempts (519) and touchdown passes (39).
 - Wake Forest's 49 percent conversion rate on third downs (113-of-230) is the highest mark in program history since at least 1996, and it is believed to be the highest percentage in Wake Forest history.
 - The Deacs 113 conversions ranks first in WF lore.
 - The Demon Deacons 62 percent conversion rate on fourth down (13-of-21) is the highest mark since 2013.
- DEFENSIVE NOTES:
 - The Demon Deacons forced a Dave Clawson-era record 29 turnovers (15 interceptions, 14 fumble recoveries). The total is the most since 2008 when Wake Forest tallied 37 turnovers.
 - The Deacs 15 interceptions are the most by a Wake Forest team since 2008 (18).
 - Overall, 10 different Demon Deacons recorded an interception this season. Wake Forest totaled six multi-interception games in 2021.
 - Sixteen different defenders forced a turnover during the season.
 - Wake Forest's 38 sacks this fall set a Clawson-era record and it ranks second in program history behind 1992 when the Deacs totaled 46.
 - The Deacs 223 yardage lost by their 38 sacks was the highest mark since at least 1996.
- FAN ATTENDANCE:
 - Behind Wake Forest's first back-to-back sellouts (Duke on Oct. 30; NC State on Nov. 13) since 2006, Allegacy Stadium hosted a 6.4 percent increase in average game attendance this fall compared to the 2019 season. That is the seventh-largest increase rate among Power 5 schools and ranks second in the Atlantic Coast Conference.
 - 172,326 fans attended the Demon Deacons six home games in the fall of 2021, which is an average of 28,721 per contest.
 - 20,305 students attended Wake Forest football games at Allegacy Stadium in 2021, with an average of 3,384 per contest. That average total equates to nearly 70% of Wake Forest's undergraduate enrollment.

- Amidst the most unique year in college football history, Clawson led the Deacons to four wins in 2020 and set multiple program records.
- The Deacs reached their fifth-straight bowl game as they played Wisconsin in the Duke's Mayo Bowl.
- The month of October saw the Demon Deacons go a perfect 4-0, marking the first time since the 2007 season a Wake Forest team had accomplished that feat. The run included a three-game ACC winning streak and was highlighted by a 23-16 victory over No. 18 Virginia Tech, which was Wake Forest's first win over a ranked opponent since 2018.
- With the help of two 50-plus point games, Wake Forest set a new program record, scoring 36.0 points per game.
- Defensively, Wake Forest had its highest turnover margin in the Dave Clawson era with a +10 mark on the season. The Deacs were one of just seven FBS schools to post a +10 or better margin in the country and tied for fourth in that category.
- Wake Forest finished the year with 14 interceptions and became one of just five schools to have 13 or more interceptions in both 2019 and 2020.

- The 2019 season produced a number of firsts in school history: a record fourth-consecutive bowl invitation, a record 14 players named to the All-ACC team, and a record-tying seven consecutive wins. Wake Forest entered the second week of November with a 7-1 record and a No. 19 ranking from the College Football Playoff.
- Wake Forest's fourth consecutive bowl invitation was to the 2019 New Era Pinstripe Bowl in venerable Yankee Stadium.
- With wins over North Carolina, NC State and Duke, the Deacons claimed the Big Four championship for the first time since 2007 and set a school record for home wins in a season.
- A program record 14 players were named to the All-ACC team and the Deacons were awarded 12 ACC Player of the Week honors.
- The team broke or tied 100 NCAA, ACC and school records in finishing 15th in the nation in total offense while the defense gained the second-most turnovers in the last 11 seasons.

- In 2018, Clawson established himself with more wins through his first five seasons than any other coach in school history. Wake Forest boasted a 1,000-yard rusher in Cade Carney and a 1,000-yard receiver in Greg Dortch, marking the first time since 1979 a Deacon team had accomplished that feat.
- That season marked Wake Forest's third-consecutive bowl invitation despite breaking in two first-year starting quarterbacks. Clawson maintained a steady hand at the controls as the Demon Deacons navigated a dozen season-ending injuries to win four of the last six games of the season including the Jared Birmingham Bowl.
- The bowl win gave Clawson his third bowl win and made him the fastest Deacon coach to three bowl victories.

- The Demon Deacons set 105 records in 2017, tied another 15 marks, and became one of the nation's most efficient and productive offenses. Wake Forest set major records for points scored in a season, obliterating the record by 97. The offense set new marks for total offense yards in a game and in a season, yards per carry, most touchdowns scored and most TD passes in a season. The defense set a record with 106 tackles for loss.
- Two numbers stood out from that campaign, Wake Forest had 11 players selected for 12 All-ACC positions, and as a team, the Deacons beat six bowl teams in 2017.

- After building the foundation for success in 2014 and 2015, Wake Forest qualified for the 2016 Military Bowl and defeated Temple in the game.
- On December 10, 2013, Clawson became the 32nd head football coach in Wake Forest University history.

Bowling Green (2009-13)

The head coach at Bowling Green State University from 2009 through 2013, Clawson led the Falcons to the 2013 Mid-American Conference championship with a 47-27 win over No. 16 Northern Illinois. The championship was BGSU's first since 1992.

Bowling Green's 2013 team went 10-3 overall under Clawson and won the MAC East title with a 7-1 record. The Falcons received a bid to the Little Caesar's Bowl in Detroit. It marked the third bowl appearance in five seasons for Clawson's team. That team ranked 29th in the nation in total offense and 10th in total defense. The Falcons were one of only two non-power conference teams to rank in the top 30 statistically in both total offense and total defense in 2013.

Led the Falcons to an 8-5 mark in 2012, which included BGSU's second bowl trip in its last four years.

Ranked sixth in the nation in total defense and 10th nationally in scoring defense, yielding just 16.8 points per game.

Clawson tutored Falcons QB Tyler Sheehan to All-MAC honors after he threw for 4,051 yards in 2009.

Dave Clawson became the 17th head football coach at Bowling Green State University on Dec. 12, 2008.

Tennessee (2008)

Replaced David Cutcliffe as the offensive coordinator under Phillip Fulmer at Tennessee.

Richmond (2004-07)

In four seasons with the Spiders, Clawson led Richmond to three-consecutive winning seasons for the first time in 52 years - and compiled a 29-20 record.

Won a school-record 11 games in 2007 and reached the semifinals of the NCAA Playoffs for the first time in school history and captured the CAA Football title that fall.

Led No. 4 Richmond to a win away from playing for the National Championship.

Named the CAA Football Coach of the Year, AFCA Region I Coach of the Year and the Division I Coach of the Year in Virginia - beating out both Virginia Tech's Frank Beamer and Virginia's Al Groh.

Finalist for both the Eddie Robinson and AFCA National Coach of the Year awards.

Under Clawson's direction, the Spiders were an offensive juggernaut as the team shattered 10 single-season records in 2007, including points (489), scoring average (34.9), touchdowns (63), total offense (5,675) and rushing yards (3,284).

Individually, tailback Tim Hightower was an All-America selection by four sources and ended his career as Richmond's all-time leading rusher (3,712 yards) and scorer (39 touchdowns). He broke five single-season records in 2007, including rushing yards (1,924) and overall touchdowns (23).

After a 3-8 mark in 2004, Clawson led the Spiders to a 9-4 season in 2005, which resulted in an Atlantic 10 Championship and a decisive win over second-ranked Hampton in the NCAA First Round. The Spiders were 6-5 in 2006 with a shutout win at Duke.

Fordham (1999-03)

During his five-year tenure at Fordham, Clawson broke 16 team and 45 individual records.

While in the Bronx, he led a program resurgence that produced the 14th-best winning percentage in I-AA football his final three seasons (72.2 percent/26-10 record).

The Rams' 19 combined wins in 2002 and 2003 were the most in back-to-back seasons since 1918-19.

A two-time Patriot League Coach of the Year (2001 and 2002), Clawson earned 2002 I-AA National Coach of the Year honors from Schutt Sports/American Football Monthly after guiding the Rams to their first-ever conference championship and I-AA playoff appearance. That Fordham squad defeated Northeastern in the first round of the playoffs and finished the fall ranked No. 12 nationally.

During his tenure at Rose Hill, Clawson coached 38 All-Conference performers, including 12 in 2003 when the Rams went 9-3. Fordham boasted the league's best scoring offense (32.9), pass offense (260.2), pass defense (171.5) and field goal percentage (78.6).

His attacking offense provided prolific individual performances, establishing school record holders for passing, Kevin Eakin with 6,112 career yards; receiving, Javarus Dudley with 101 receptions for 1,439 yards (2002); and rushing, Kirwin Watson, 1,477 yards and 20 rushing touchdowns (2002).

Clawson was also dedicated to his student-athletes' success off the field. His first recruiting class at Fordham produced an 88 percent graduation rate.

Villanova (1996-98)

The Wildcats established 70 school records in his three seasons and went to the I-AA playoffs in 1996 and 1997.

Under Clawson's tutelage, Brian Finneran won the Walter Payton award, given to I-AA's Most Outstanding Player, and Brian Westbrook became the first student-athlete in NCAA history to gain more than 1,000 yards rushing and receiving in a season.

Lehigh (1993-95)

The Mountain Hawks won the Patriot League title his first and last years, while the offense led the league in scoring, total offense and pass offense each of his final two seasons. Rabih Abdullah, who later played for the Chicago Bears, set a school record with 1,536 rushing yards.

Buffalo (1991-92)

During his two-year stint Bulls' offense set 36 school records, including points and yards in a season.

Albany (1989-90)

- Earned his Master's degree while working with the secondary, quarterbacks and running backs.

Background

- A native of Youngstown, N.Y., located on the shores of Lake Ontario just 30 minutes north of Buffalo, Clawson played defensive back in football and also basketball at Williams College in Massachusetts.

Personal

- Clawson and his wife, Catherine, are the parents of two children, Courtney and Eric.

ASSISTANT COACHING STAFF

The Balogh Family Football Assistant Coach/WRs ARI CONFESSOR

Coach Dave Clawson announced on Feb. 20, 2023 that Ari Confessor had been added to his coaching staff as the Demon Deacons wide receivers coach.

Spent four years (2019-22) as the WR coach at Air Force. He helped the Falcons to a 34-11 overall record and they won three bowl championships.

A 2004 Holy Cross graduate with a bachelor's degree in political science.

Asst HC for Defense/DL DAVE COHEN

At least one defensive lineman earn All-ACC honors in nine of his 10 seasons since his arrival in 2014.

Over the last six years, the Deacons have racked up 190 sacks, including 88 in the last three seasons combined.

Carlos "Boogie" Basham Jr. recorded 11 sacks in 2019, the second-most in a season by a Wake Forest player.

Offensive Coordinator/QBs WARREN RUGGIERO

Coordinated a Demon Deacon offense that has set or tied nearly 400 offensive records since the start of 2017.

The Deacs were the only football program in the ACC to average at least 30 points per game each year from 2017-22.

Wake has found the endzone through the air 21 more times than any other ACC team since the start of the 2021 season -- 82 total (third-most in FBS).

Defensive Coordinator BRAD LAMBERT

Defensively, Wake Forest took a major step forward in 2023 in the second season of Lambert's scheme.

Through the regular season, the Demon Deacons were one of the best defenses in the country, receiving an overall grade of 84.8 from PFF which ranked 45th nationally. Additionally, PFF has the Deacs ranked in the top-50 in run defense (82.4).

Lambert served eight seasons (2011-18) as the head coach at Charlotte.

Special Teams Coordinator/TEs WAYNE LINEBURG

Tutored kicker Nick Sciba who set the NCAA record by converting 34 consecutive field goal tries over the 2018 and 2019 seasons and is the all-time leading scorer in program history.

Oversaw the development of tight end Cam Serigne who earned first team All-ACC honors and set the conference record for receptions, receiving yards and touchdown catches by a tight end in a career.

Associate Head Coach / Safeties JAMES ADAMS

Adams was with Wake Forest's new defensive coordinator Brad Lambert at Charlotte for eight seasons (2011-18).

Individually, Adams tutored safety Malik Mustapha who became one of the best defensive players in the conference and he earned All-ACC honors in 2023.

Adams was a two-time letterman at linebacker for Wake Forest.

RUNNING BACKS JOHN HUNTER

Put together three-straight seasons of rushing for over 2,000 yards from 2017-19, the first time that has happened since 1996.

Overall since 2017, Wake Forest has rushed for 145 touchdowns and that total is one of the most productive seven-year stretches in program history.

Tutored Matt Colburn II and Cade Carney who finished sixth and seventh in school history in career rushing yards.

STAFF NOTES

Five of the 10 assistant coaches on the current Wake Forest football coaching staff have been in Winston-Salem since head coach Dave Clawson arrived ahead of the 2014 season.

Defensive Coordinator Brad Lambert, Safeties Coach James Adams and linebackers coach Glenn Spencer all enter their second season on staff. Adams has previously served under Lambert during three different stops at Wake Forest, Charlotte and Purdue while Spencer was on Lambert's staff in 2018 as the defensive coordinator. Additionally, Chip West coached with Dave Clawson when he was at Fordham and with Brad Lambert when he was at Charlotte.

Before coming to Wake Forest at the start of Dave Clawson's tenure in 2014, Coach Hunter spent the previous five seasons working on Clawson's staff at Bowling Green. He served both as a recruiting coordinator and running backs coach during their tenure, helping guide the Falcons to a 2013 Mid-American Conference title.

All football support staff are listed on GoDeacs.com with complete bios, titles and information.

Assistant Head Coach for Offense / Offensive Line NICK TABACCA

Placed four of its five offensive line starters on the All-ACC team following the 2019 season, the first time in school history.

Set the school record for passing yards in a season in 2019 while posting its lowest sacks allowed per pass attempt since 1998.

Eight #BeefBoys have made it to the NFL including Zach Tom, Justin Herron and Phil Haynes who were drafted.

Cornerbacks CHIP WEST

Coach Dave Clawson announced on Feb. 2, 2023 that Chip West had been added to his coaching staff as the Demon Deacons cornerbacks coach.

West came to Winston-Salem with over 25 years of college coaching experience and spent the past three seasons as the cornerbacks coach at Syracuse. During his time in Upstate New York, every starting cornerback for the Orange earned All-ACC honors.

Linebackers GLENN SPENCER

Over three decades of college coaching experience including three years as a head coach and 10 years as a defensive coordinator.

Coached nine NFL Draft picks including 2014 First-Round Pick cornerback Justin Gilbert.

Lambert tutored senior LB Ryan Smenda, Jr. to All-ACC honorable mention honors in 2022 as he tallied the 19th most tackles in the country (117).

GAIN AN EDGE

SEASON REVIEW

- Wake Forest only returned 11 starters from its bowl champion 2022 squad and rode the highs and lows with many student-athletes playing major roles for the first time in their careers. The team persevered throughout the season and won three home games during the season and earned a road victory at Old Dominion.
- The Deacs opened the 2023 season with a 37-17 win over Elon.
 - Dating back to 2000, Wake Forest has won its last 18 games and has gone undefeated against non-Power-5 North Carolina schools since 2000.
- With the 36-20 win over Vanderbilt in Week 2, the Deacs have five wins over the Commodores since the start of the 2007 season.
- Wake Forest won at Old Dominion in Week 3 with a 27-24 comeback win.
 - The victory marked the Deacs' seventh-straight over a program from the state of Virginia dating back to the 2020 season. Over that win streak, the Demon Deacons have outscored Virginia teams 247-142.
 - The win over ODU also clinched Wake Forest's 12th-straight non-conference victory. That tally was the second-longest in the country at the time before the streak was snapped at Notre Dame on Nov. 18, 2023.
 - Wake Forest trailed by 17 points in its win at Old Dominion. With that, the Demon Deacons second-half comeback marked the program's largest since Nov. 11, 2017 at Syracuse.
 - The 17-point come-from-behind win was tied for sixth in Wake Forest history and tied with the aforementioned 2017 contest at

- SU for the second-largest in the Clawson era.
- The Deacs downed Pitt 21-17 at home on Oct. 21, 2023 and that win marked Wake Forest's first victory over the Panthers in program history.
- Six players earned All-Atlantic Coast Conference honors following the 2023 season. The 2023 season marked the seventh-consecutive season the Demon Deacons have had six or more players make the All-ACC teams.
 - The Deacs 54 All-ACC honors is the fifth most overall in the ACC since the 2019 season and Wake Forest is one of just six schools to have more than 50 honorees in that time span.
 - Redshirt senior offensive lineman Michael Jurgens and junior defensive back Malik Mustapha both earned Second Team All-ACC Honors. This was the third time in his Wake Forest career that Jurgens has been named an All-ACC honoree. Junior defensive lineman Jasheen Davis was named Third Team All-ACC. Additionally, redshirt junior offensive lineman DeVonte Gordon, redshirt junior defensive lineman Kevin Pointer and sophomore running back Demond Claiborne all earned honorable mention recognition from the voters.

- Defensively, Wake Forest took a major step forward in 2023 in the second season of defensive coordinator's Brad Lambert scheme. Through the regular season, the Demon Deacons have been one of the best defenses in the country, receiving an overall grade of 84.8 from PFF which ranks 45th nationally. Additionally, PFF has the Deacs ranked in the top-50 in run defense (82.4).
- The Deacs had of the best defenses in the country in redzone defense as they were tied for 22nd nationally with just 76.9 percent of opponent redzone trips resulting in a score at the end of the regular season. Additionally just 20 of the 39 opponent red zone tries (51.3 pct.) ended

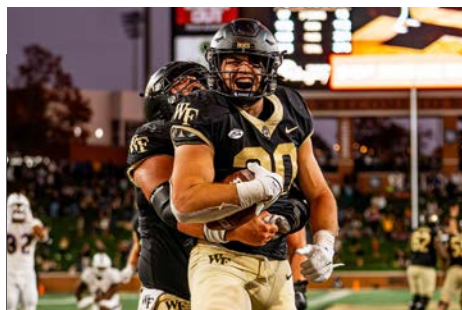

SUSTAINED SUCCESS

- in a touchdown.
- The Wake Forest defense made a staple of getting off the field early in drives with 43 3-and-outs. Overall for the season, Wake Forest has forced its opponents into three-and-outs on 28.5 percent of opponents drives (43-of-142).
- Specifically, since the start of the 2016 season, the Deacs have the third-most wins in the ACC not counting the COVID-shortened 2020 season. Additionally, the Demon Deacons are in the winningest stretch of football in their program's history with Clawson's teams owning five the program's top-five win totals in program history over a five-year span.

- 38 Wins (2017-21)
- 37 Wins (2018-22)
- 36 Wins (2004-08 & 2006-10)
- 35 Wins (2019-23)
- 34 Wins (2016-20)
- 33 Wins (2015-19)
- 31 Wins (1944-48)
- 30 Wins (1940-44)

- All that winning has led to record-setting crowds, multiple sellouts and the best student attendance in school history, which has given the Demon Deacons a huge edge when playing at home inside Allegacy Stadium. Wake holds a 23-7 (.767) record in home contests since the start of the 2019 season, which included a program-record 11-game winning streak spanning from the 2020 to 2022 seasons. With that, the Deacs' 76.7 percent win rate ranks third in the ACC during that time period (2019-23).
- That aforementioned win streak featured a perfect 6-0 record at home in 2021, which was Wake Forest's first undefeated home record since 1979 and that fall marked just the third time since the Deacs' 1970 ACC Championship team to go unbeaten inside Allegacy Stadium. Meanwhile, six home wins in 2021 tied the program record that Clawson's 2019 squad had previously set.
- Over the last eight seasons since 2016, the Demon Deacons have found a winning formula in one-score ball games by capturing multiple more wins by one score in six of those seasons with a total of 21 victories in 38 such games. Coach Clawson's squads hold the fourth-best winning percentage in the ACC in those games during that span.
- During the Deacs run of seven-straight bowl appearances from 2016-22, which was the second-longest streak in the ACC, tied for the 10th longest in the country, and was the longest in Wake Forest lore with the previous best at just three-consecutive years, Coach Clawson's program defeated two SEC teams (Texas A&M, 2017; Missouri, 2022) and a Big Ten program (Rutgers, 2021) across those postseason games. Overall, Clawson has earned five bowl victories at Wake Forest, which is the most in school history, and is tied for fifth in ACC history for postseason wins. He ranks behind Bobby Bowden (Florida State, 11), Dabo Swinney (Clemson, 11), Frank Beamer (Virginia Tech, 6) and Danny Ford (Clemson, 6). Meanwhile, Clawson enters the 2024 season tied with Jimbo Fisher (Florida State, 5) and Ralph Friedgen (Maryland, 5).

- Overall during his decade in Winston-Salem, Clawson is a perfect 4-0 against teams from the SEC. Additionally with a pair of victories against Vanderbilt and Mizzou in 2022, he led the Deacs to a pair of victories over Southeastern Conference foes in the same season for the first since 2008 and the second time in program history.

WINNING TRADITION

- The 2021 and 2022 campaigns in Winston-Salem featured a number of program firsts and records. Specifically during that two-year span, Wake Forest went 19-8 and that win total over two seasons was the second-highest in program history (21, 2006-07) and it was tied for the ninth-best mark in all of the Power 5.

After climbing into the top 10 of the Associated Press and Amway Coaches Poll in 2021 and 2022, Wake Forest was one of just 17 programs to achieve a top-10 ranking in each of those campaigns. The Deacs climbed to ninth in 2021 and ranked 10th in 2022, both the highest rankings in program history. Additionally, the Deacs were tabbed No. 9 in the country by the College Football Playoff Poll on Nov. 2, 2021. Also, Wake Forest ended the 2021 season ranked No. 15 in the Associated Press Poll, which marked the highest ranking to end a season in program history.

- Since the start of the 2016 season, the Deacs have the second-most wins in the ACC not counting the COVID-shortened 2020 season:
 - Clemson -- 84
 - NC State -- 55
 - Wake Forest -- 53
 - Pitt -- 51
 - Miami -- 51

WELCOME TO ALLEGACY STADIUM & MCCREARY FOOTBALL COMPLEX

ALLEGACY STADIUM

- Wake Forest University announced a historic, long-term agreement with Allegacy Federal Credit Union, a leading financial institution and a longtime, trusted partner with mutual deep roots in Winston-Salem prior to the 2023 season. The new multi-year commitment is the largest corporate partnership in Wake Forest University history, deepening Allegacy's existing partnership with Wake Forest University by establishing the home of Wake Forest football as Allegacy Federal Credit Union Stadium.
- Allegacy is now An Official Banking Partner of Wake Forest Athletics, the Exclusive Credit Union of Wake Forest Athletics, the Official Wealth Management Advisors of Wake Forest Athletics and the Exclusive Banking Partner of Wake Forest Football. Additionally, Allegacy became Wake Forest's Preferred Student-Athlete Financial Education Provider, providing the availability of Allegacy financial experts to assist Wake Forest student-athletes with general financial matters and education.
- Allegacy Stadium anchors the largest sports and entertainment quadrant west of Greensboro and north of Charlotte. As such, it broadens the credit union's visibility among the cumulative 250,000 fans and 45,000 students who attend Demon Deacons football games and the nearly 20 million total television viewers who watch the Deacs' football games each year.

2023 FAN ATTENDANCE

- Allegacy Stadium hosted four sellout crowds and a total of 181,074 fans across the Deacs six home contests and the average of 30,179 fans per game marks the highest home median since 2011.
- Wake Forest's total student attendance for the season was above 21,000 and multiple games featured at least 80 percent of the student body in attendance.

MCCREARY FOOTBALL COMPLEX

- Wake Forest football has undergone a facilities transformation following the tremendous success of the Demon Deacons football program over the last 10 years as $150 million has been invested into the Deacs' world class facilities.
- The latest investment was a $38 million dollar facility, the McCreary Football Complex. This facility is 60,000 new square feet adjoining the existing McCreary Football Field House and Sutton Sports Performance Center. It includes locker space for 130 student-athletes, player lounge with a nutrition station, recovery area, entertainment area, football athletic training/treatment space, equipment center and loading dock and a multipurpose space seating up to 200 for team meals, meetings, functions and other activities.
- Other new facilities during Coach Clawson's tenure include the opening of the aforementioned Sutton Sports Performance Center in the fall of 2019 and the McCreary Football Field House in 2016.

INDIVIDUAL ACHIEVEMENTS

JASHEEN DAVIS WRECKING BACKFIELDS

- One player that garnered Third Team All-ACC honors this fall was junior defensive end Jasheen Davis as he has recorded at least 0.5 tackles-for-loss in the 20 of his last 21 games.
- Over the last two seasons, Davis has collected 30.0 tackles for loss and 14.5 sacks.
- With 7.5 sacks in 2023, Davis has now tallied 20.0 sacks in his career and that ranks fifth in program history:
 - Mike McCrary (1989-92) 30.0
 - Calvin Pace (1999-02) 29.0
 - Duke Ejiofor (2014-17) 23.5
 - Carlos Basham, Jr. (2017-20) 20.5
- 5. Jasheen Davis (2020-Present) 20.0
- Meanwhile, his 7.5 sacks for the season ranked just outside the top 10 in program history for a single season:
 - Mike McCrary (1992) -- 15
 - Carlos Basham, Jr. (2019) -- 11
 - Duke Ejiofor (2016) -- 10.5
 - Calvin Pace (2001) -- 10
 - Mike McCrary (1991) -- 10
 - Bryan Ray (1999) -- 10
 - Luiji Vilain (2021) -- 9
 - Nikita Whitlock (2013) -- 9
 - Maurice Miller (1992) -- 9
 - Calvin Pace (2000) -- 9
 - Calvin Pace (2002) -- 8
 - Rondell Bothroyd (2021) -- 8

- Jasheen Davis ranks tied for 11th in program history with 17 tackles-for-loss during the 2023 season:

1. Mike McCrary (1992) -- 23

ORIGINAL GROVES STADIUM

After playing football in Groves Stadium since 1940, Wake Forest renamed its facility BB&T Field just prior to the start of the 2007 season and again Truist Field in 2020. The field is named after one of the largest banks in the Southeast.

Wake Forest began playing intercollegiate football in Groves Stadium in 1940 when the school, then located in Wake Forest, N.C., first dedicated a 20,000-seat facility by that same name on its original campus. When Wake opened its current facility in 1968, the school kept the Groves name.

The stadium was named in honor of Henry H. Groves, Sr., who passed away in 1985. It was his generous gift that made possible the construction of the original stadium, which would be the site of some of the finest moments in Wake Forest athletic history.

The Deacs played their final game in old Wake Forest in 1955 before the school moved to Winston-Salem. After several years of playing at Bowman Gray Stadium, the Deacs moved to Groves Stadium in 1968.

In 1957, the original Groves Stadium was sold to Wake Forest High School for the sum of $10 and became the home of high school football and other community events. It was later renamed Trentini Stadium, in memory of the late Tony Trentini, a Wake Forest football player and 1956 graduate, who later returned to serve as the high school team's coach.

HISTORY

RECORDS

RESULTS

BILL BARNES • 1956

One of the first stars of the ACC was Wake Forest running back Bill Barnes. The "Bullet" from Landis, N.C., established five school records. He was chosen to the LOOK Magazine All-America team and a second team Associated Press All-American as a senior.

In addition, Barnes was a unanimous choice for All-ACC honors. He was voted the most outstanding player for the South team in the North-South Shrine All-Star game in Miami. His 1,010 yards rushing in 1956 ranked second nationally. He also ranked 13th in total offense and 13th in kickoff returns. Barnes' number 33 jersey was retired following his senior season.

1956 Statistics

Rushing — 168 attempts for 1,010 yards (6.0 avg.) and 6 touchdowns

Punt Returns — 6 punt returns for a 19.0 average and a touchdown

Kick Returns — 11 kick returns for a 28.6 average

BRIAN PICCOLO • 1964

After toiling in relative obscurity during his first two years on the varsity team, Brian Piccolo emerged as a senior to lead the nation in rushing.

Piccolo rushed 252 times for 1,044 yards and 15 touchdowns. His rushing total and 111 points scored (17 overall touchdowns and 9 PATs) ranked first in the NCAA. In all, Piccolo set six new conference marks and established nine new school records en route to being named a Football News All-American.

Piccolo left Wake Forest as the school's all-time leading rusher and scorer.

1964 Statistics

Rushing — 252 attempts for 1,044 yards (4.1 avg.) and 15 touchdowns

Receiving — 5 receptions for 122 yards and 2 touchdowns

All-Purpose Yards — 1,166 yards

JAY VENUTO • 1979

Jay Venuto re-wrote the Wake Forest and ACC record books when it came to passing. The native of Salem, N.J., broke six ACC season records, including total offense (2,485 yards), passing attempts (367), pass completions (198), passing yards (2,432), total plays (443), and a ACC single game record when he completed 28 passes against East Carolina.

Venuto threw for 16 touchdowns and guided the Deacons to the 1979 Tangerine Bowl against LSU under head coach John Mackovic. Mackovic was the quarterback in the same backfield with Wake Forest's previous ACC Player of the Year, Brian Piccolo.

1979 Statistics

Passing — 198 for 367, 2,432 yards, 17 touchdowns, 16 interceptions

Rushing — 76 attempts for 173 yards and 1 touchdown

Total Offense — 2,485 yards

CHRIS BARCLAY • 2005

Chris Barclay was offered only one Division I scholarship out of high school. He proved to be the ultimate diamond in the rough.

Barclay led the ACC in rushing during the regular season three times, the only player in history to do so. As a senior, he was chosen as the league's Player of the Year.

The native of Louisville, Ky., carried 218 times for 1,127 yards, both league-highs, and 10 touchdowns in 2005. He added 381 receiving and return yards to lead the ACC in all-purpose yards. Barclay had two 200-yard rushing days, one against East Carolina and the other against Duke. Against the Blue Devils, Barclay broke the school's all-time career rushing mark.

2005 Statistics

Rushing — 218 attempts for 1,127 yards (5.2 avg.) and 10 touchdowns

Receiving — 26 receptions for 159 yards (6.1 avg.)

All-Purpose — 1,508 yards

ALL-AMERICANS

BILL GEORGE

1949 | 1st Team AP, 2nd Team NEA

George was the first Demon Deacon ever to be named an All-American. He gained that distinction as a sophomore in 1949 after an outstanding season at defensive tackle. That achievement highlighted an excellent overall career which saw him named all-conference three times (1948, '49 and '51). He was outstanding as a professional player, too, with both the Chicago Bears and Los Angeles Rams, earning all-pro honors as a linebacker eight times and being inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1974. He joined the WFU Hall of Fame in 1998 and his number 47 is retired.

JIM STATON

1950 | 2nd Team AP

One year after Bill George received All-America acclaim, Staton followed him to that lofty status, also as a defensive tackle. He was named to the all-conference team that same year and was chosen as the Deacons' MVP as well. Staton also was successful professionally, primarily in the Canadian Football League with the Montreal Alouettes, where he earned all-league honors playing under former Wake Forest coach Peahead Walker. He was inducted into the WFU Hall of Fame in 1982.

BOB BARTHOLOMEW

1955 | 2nd Team INS, 2nd Team UPI

Wake Forest's list of outstanding linemen continued in 1955 with Bartholomew earning All-America honors as a tackle. He additionally received Academic All-America recognition that same year, making him the first individual in school history to be named to both all-star squads in the same season. Bartholomew was a four-year starter and a three-time All-ACC pick (twice on the first team). He served WFU as director of the Deacon Club for more than 16 years (1968-1984) and was inducted into the WFU Hall of Fame in 1984.

1956 | 1st Team Look, 2nd Team AP

One of the top all-around players in Wake Forest history, Barnes received All-America notice as a running back in 1956. He became the first Deacon — and the first individual ever in the ACC — to rush for more than 1,000 yards in one season (1,010) and was named the conference player of the year. The two-time All-ACC performer went on to an all-pro career with the Philadelphia Eagles, later playing for Washington and Minnesota as well. He was a 1974 inductee into the WFU Hall of Fame. The sports lounge in Bridger Field House is named in his honor and his number 33 is retired.

NORM SNEAD

1960 | 2nd Team UPI, 2nd Team FWAA

The only Deacon QB to earn All-America honors, Snead ranks as one of the premier passers ever in the ACC. Three times he was all-conference (first team in 1959 and '60), and as a junior and senior he led the league in passing and total offense, which led to his selection on the ACC 50th Anniversary team in 2002. Despite playing in a run-oriented era, Snead's career numbers rate him among the top all-time passers at WFU. He played for five NFL teams during a 16-year career that saw him gain All-Pro honors. The WFU Hall of Fame inducted him in 1977, the banquet room in Bridger Field House is named in his honor and his number 16 is retired.

BRIAN PICCOLO

1964 | 1st Team FN, 1st Team FD, 1st Team, Helms, 1st Team NY Daily News, 2nd Team AP, 2nd Team UPI, 2nd Team NEA

One of Wake Forest's most famed athletes, Piccolo earned All-America status in 1964 after leading the nation in rushing (1,044 yards) and scoring (111 points). That same season he also became the second Demon Deacon to earn ACC Player of the Year honors. Wake Forest's leading rusher in 1962, 1963 and 1964, Piccolo played for the NFL's Chicago Bears four seasons before his career came to an end due to his now well-known bout with cancer. He died in June of 1970 and was posthumously inducted into the WFU Hall of Fame later that year. In 2002, Piccolo was named to the ACC 50th Anniversary Team and his number 31 is retired.

WIN HEADLEY

1970 | 2nd Team Walter Camp

A three-year starter, Headley earned All-America recognition as a defensive tackle on Wake Forest's 1970 ACC Championship squad. He also was honored that year as an All-ACC selection and was voted team Most Valuable Player. In the spring of 1971, Headley and basketball player Charlie Davis were co-recipients of WFU's Arnold Palmer Award. He played briefly with the Green Bay Packers and in the CFL, and later returned to Wake Forest as an assistant coach under Chuck Mills. He was inducted into the WFU Hall of Fame in 1994.

CHUCK RAMSEY

1973 | 1st Team FWAA

The 1973 season was not a successful one for the Demon Deacons, who managed only one win and one tie in 11 outings, but Ramsey led the country in punting with a 44.8-yard average. He led the ACC in punting as a sophomore, junior and senior (1971-73), and upon his graduation, his career average of 44.0 was the third-best in ACC history. He spent eight productive years (1977-84) with the New York Jets in the NFL.

ALL-AMERICANS

BILL ARMSTRONG
1975 | 3rd Team AP
1976 | CONSENSUS ALL-AMERICAN
1st Team AP, UPI, Walter Camp, FN,
FWAA, AFCA, TSN

Armstrong was the first player in Wake Forest history to be named a consensus All-American. A quarterback early in his Deacon career, he became an all-league safety in 1975 and again in 1976, leading the team in tackles both years. His 271 career unassisted tackles are the most in school history. He received the Arnold Palmer Award, and in 1996, he was inducted into the WFU Hall of Fame. In 2002, Armstrong was named to the ACC 50th Anniversary Team and his number 19 is retired.

WAYNE BAUMGARDNER
1979 | 2nd Team NEA

Wayne Baumgardner put up one of the most prolific seasons in school history among wide receivers in 1979. Baumgardner finished seventh in the nation with 55 receptions and became the first Demon Deacon to have 1,000 receiving yards in a season. He had eight 100-yard receiving games including 100 yards in an upset of No. 12 Georgia and 159 yards in a victory over No. 13 Auburn. For the year, Baumgardner recorded 55 catches for 1,000 yards and eight touchdowns.

JAMES PARKER
1979 | 2nd Team Football News

Nose guard James Parker garnered All-America honors in 1979 as his leadership helped Wake put together an impressive 8-4 record and a Tangerine Bowl appearance. The Deacons posted three victories over ranked opponents during the season, including road wins over Georgia and North Carolina. Parker was also named first team All-ACC that season and received WFU's Bill George Award, given to the team's top lineman. He went on to a long and successful career in the Canadian Football League, playing for Edmonton, British Columbia and Toronto. Parker still ranks among WFU's all-time leaders in total tackles, solo tackles, tackles for loss and sacks.

BILL ARD
1980 | 1st Team TSN

One of the top offensive linemen in Wake Forest history, Bill Ard was an All-America selection in 1980, his third year as a starter. He was named All-ACC and was a recipient of the Bill George Award that same season while also serving as team captain. Following his graduation, he enjoyed a very successful career in the NFL, winning a Super Bowl during a 10-year stint with the New York Giants before concluding his career with the Green Bay Packers. He was inducted into the WFU Hall of Fame in 1993.

HARRY NEWSOME
1983 | 3rd Team AP

Harry Newsome was an All-America punter as a junior in 1983, ranking as the nation's third-leading punter with a 45.5-yard average. That average ranked as the best season mark in school history. Newsome's career punting average of 43.6 ranks third in the Deacon record books behind All-Americans, Chuck Ramsey and Ryan Plackemeier. He became the 15th player in WFU history to be named first team All-ACC twice. He was drafted in 1985 and spent nine seasons in the NFL with Pittsburgh and Minnesota.

PAUL KISER
1986 | 1st Team AP, 1st Team TSN

The 1986 Deacons established eight offensive school records and led the ACC in scoring. A major factor was Kiser's play up front in that offensive unit, and he was recognized for his efforts as a first team All-American. In addition, he was named All-ACC that year as a senior and became the first Deacon since the formation of the ACC to receive the Jacobs Blocking Trophy as the league's premier blocker.

GEORGE COGHILL

One of the most popular members of WFU's 1992 Independence Bowl champion squad, Coghill was a third-team AP All-America selection. He was the leading vote-getter among defensive backs on the 1992 All-ACC team, making that elite group for the second year. He started 44 of 45 contests during a career that saw him finish fourth in interceptions (12) while becoming the school's career punt return leader. In 1997 and 1998 he was a member of the Denver Broncos' World Championship teams.

BEN COLEMAN
1992 | 1st Team AFCA

Wake Forest's Ben Coleman emerged as one of the country's premier offensive linemen during his senior season, gaining first team recognition on the Kodak Coaches (AFCA) squad. He had not become an offensive player until after his sophomore year and did not earn a starting job until his final campaign. His other 1992 honors included the Bill George Award and the Jacobs Blocking Trophy as the top blocker in the ACC. After being selected in the second round of the 1993 NFL draft, Coleman spent nine seasons in the league (1993-2001) with four different teams.

ALL-AMERICANS

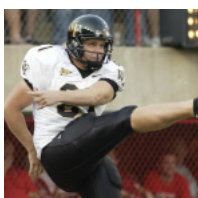

MICHAEL COLLINS
2001 | 3rd Team TSN

Despite moving from tackle to guard and learning a new offensive system prior to his senior year, offensive lineman Michael Collins was named third-team All-America and earned first-team All-ACC honors in 2001. Collins anchored a line that helped WFU lead the ACC in rushing and fewest sacks allowed en route to a 6-5 record. Collins played three years with the Baltimore Ravens.

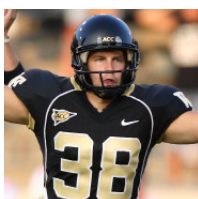

CALVIN PACE
2002 | 1st Team AFCA, 3rd Team AP,
4th Team TSN

Defensive end Calvin Pace became WFU's first first-team All-America selection in 10 years after leading the Deacs to a 7-6 overall record and Seattle Bowl victory in 2002. Pace, who became Wake Forest's career tackles for loss leader during his senior campaign, also led the ACC in sacks and finished second in the WFU career record book in that category. Named the ACC Defensive Player of the Year by The Sporting News, Pace was a first-team All-ACC selection as well as WFU team MVP. He became the school's third first-round pick when Arizona chose him as the 18th overall pick.

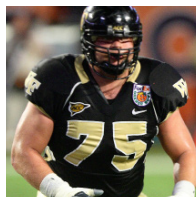

RYAN PLACKEMEIER
2005 | CONSENSUS ALL-AMERICAN
1st Team AFCA, AP, CBS Sportsline
ESPN, FWAA, SI, TSN, Walter Camp

In addition to his consensus All-America honors, Plackemeier won the 2005 Ray Guy Award as the nation's best punter. He led the nation in both net punting and average per punt. As a senior, he punted 67 times with an average of 47.2 yards per punt to break his own school record. Among those with 200 career attempts, Plackemeier is the NCAA's all-time leading punter with a career average of 45.26 yards per punt. He was a three-time first team All-ACC selection. As a senior, he nailed three punts of at least 70 yards, including an 82-yard blast against NC State. Plackemeier was drafted in the seventh round by Seattle.

SAM SWANK
2006 | 1st Team ESPN, 1st Team Rivals, 1st Team SI

Placekicker Sam Swank, a native of Jacksonville Beach, Fla., was named first team All-American by three publications. He kicked three field goals in the ACC Championship Game and was named Most Valuable Player. Swank was selected first team All-ACC by the Atlantic Coast Sports Media Association as a placekicker and honorable mention All-ACC by ACMSA as a punter. He was the only player in the nation to be named a semifinalist for both the Lou Groza Award and the Ray Guy Award. Swank tied the NCAA record for most 50-yard field goals in a game, making three at NC State. He set 11 new school records during his sophomore campaign.

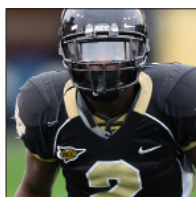

STEVE VALLOS
2006 | 1st Team SI, 1st Team TSN, 2nd
Team Walter Camp

Steve Vallos, an offensive tackle from Boardman, Ohio, was one of the vocal and emotional leaders of the 2006 ACC Championship team. He was a first team All-ACC pick and one website even selected him as the conference's Player of the Year. Vallos won the ACC Offensive Lineman of the Week award twice and graded out at 90 percent for the season. He had 92.5 knockdown blocks, 23 more than any other teammate. Vallos enjoyed one of his best career games with an ACC Championship game berth on the line at Maryland when he earned a career-best 96 percent to go with 10 knockdown blocks. Vallos started all 48 games of his career, the most in Wake Forest history. He was drafted in the seventh round by the Seattle Seahawks.

STEVE JUSTICE
2007 | 1st Team AP, 1st Team CBS
Sportsline, 1st Team ESPN, 1st Team
AFCA, 2nd Team Walter Camp, 2nd
Team SI, 2nd Team TSN

Steve Justice is the most decorated center in school history. A consensus All-America selection, Justice was also the recipient of the Atlantic Coast Conference's Jacobs Blocking Trophy and the national runner-up for the Rimington Trophy. A three-year starter, Justice helped pave the way for Wake Forest to win the 2006 ACC Championship and the 2007 Meineke Car Care Bowl. Justice was a first team All-ACC selection as a senior and a sixth round draft pick of the Indianapolis Colts.

ALPHONSO SMITH
2007 | 2nd Team Walter Camp, 3rd Team AP
2008 | 1st Team AP, 1st Team AFCA, 1st
Team FWAA, 1st Team Walter Camp, 1st
Team CBS Sports, 2nd Team TSN, 2nd Team
SI, 2nd Team Phil Steele, 2nd Team Rivals

Alphonso Smith was just the second Deacon to earn All-American honors in two different seasons. His seven interceptions in 2008 and eight in 2007 were both tied for the most in the country and his career total of 21 broke Dry Bly's ACC record of 20. The 2008 Bronko Nagurski Award finalist, finished his career with a school-record 61 passes defended and his 249 interception return yards are second-most in school-history. His 20 passes defended in 2008 not only led the ACC but was also tied for the most in the country. Smith also proved to be one of the most capable defensive backs in the country as a junior in 2007. He once again led the ACC in interceptions and passes defended. Three of his interceptions resulted in touchdown returns but none was more important than his return against Maryland on Sept. 22. With the Deacons trailing 24-3, the Terps threatened to score again when Smith intercepted a pass in the end zone and returned it 100 yards for the score. Besides being the longest return in school history, the return sparked the Deacons to an amazing 31-24 overtime win.

ALL-AMERICANS

AARON CURRY

2008 | 1st Team SI, 1st Team Pro Football Weekly, 2nd Team AP, 2nd Team TSN, 2nd Team Phil Steele, 2nd Team Rivals

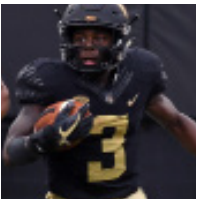

Aaron Curry returned for his senior season and had arguably one of the best years in school history. Curry was the key to the Demon Deacons' defense, leading the squad with 105 total tackles and 66 solo stops. He received the Butkus Award, which is given to the nation's top linebacker, and he was a finalist for the Lott Trophy, which recognizes the country's top defensive player. In perhaps the team's best defensive game of the year against Florida State, Curry made eight tackles, had a fumble recovery and recorded his sixth career interception. He returned the pick 22 yards, adding to his school-record total of 278 interception return yards. The Wake Forest defense also held the Seminoles to just three points in the game, and beat FSU for the second-straight time in Tallahassee. He also became one of four Deacons to start three-straight bowl games.

JOSH BUSH

Josh Bush made his final season for the Deacs his best. He finished among the national leaders in interceptions with six during the 2011 season. He was tied for ninth in the nation and second in the ACC in interceptions. Bush was fifth on the team with 59 tackles and totaled 11 passes defended. Bush was a first team All-ACC selection and a third team Associated Press All-America pick. He became the first Demon Deacon chosen to the AP All-America team since 2008 when Alphonso Smith was a first team selection and Aaron Curry was named to the second team. Bush had two interceptions against Notre Dame with his other picks coming against NC State, Boston College, Florida State and Clemson.

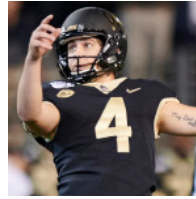

GREG DORTCH

2018 | 1st Team SI, 1st Team FWA, 1st Team Pro Football Focus, 2nd Team AP, 2nd Team The Athletic

Greg Dortch made his presence felt in his two seasons as a Demon Deacon, scoring 19 touchdowns in 20 career games. In 2018, Dortch led the ACC in all-purpose yards and led the nation in punt return touchdowns with two. Against Towson, Dortch returned two punts for touchdowns, each covering 60 yards. He added 94 yards in receptions with two touchdowns and had 85 yards in kickoff returns, totaling 310 all-purpose yards. Dortch was a first team All-ACC pick at two positions: return specialist and all-purpose player, earning All-America honors as a returner.

NICK SCIBA

2019 | 1st Team ESPN, 2nd Team FWA, 2nd Team SI, 2nd Team Phil Steele, 3rd Team AP, 3rd Team Athlon

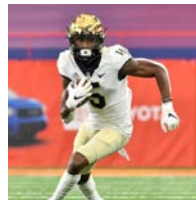

Nick Sciba, a Lou Groza Award semifinalist, proved himself to be one of the most accurate kickers in Wake Forest, ACC and NCAA history in 2019 when he set the new record of 34 consecutive field goals made. Hitting 24-of-25 field goal attempts during the season and going a perfect 50-of-50 in PATs, Sciba set a new Wake Forest single-season record with 119 in 2019. Against Florida State on October 19, he tied the school single-game record with five field goals and tied the school record and set career-high with 16 points.

SAGE SURRATT

2019 | 3rd Team Athlon

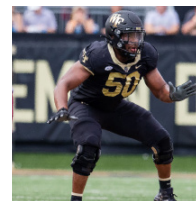

Before a season-ending injury, Sage Surratt was the most explosive wide receiver in the country, leading all Power-5 receivers with 1,001 receiving yards. In just nine games, he notched 11 touchdown catches, the second-most in a season by a Deacon and the most since Ricky Proehl had 11 in 1989. Surratt tallied four games of 150 or more yards receiving and has five for his career. No other Deacon has more than two in a season or four in a career. During the October 12 game vs. Louisville, he totaled 196 receiving yards, the third-most in a game in school history by a Wake receiver, the second-most by an ACC receiver in 2019.

JAQUARII ROBERSON

2020 | 2nd Team Pro Football Focus

Roberson proved he is one of the best wide receivers in the ACC and the country in 2020. Roberson finished the year in the top 10 in Wake Forest's single season records in receiving yards (926) and receiving touchdowns (8). Additionally, he tied a program record by finishing the 2020 campaign with four-straight 100-yard receiving yard games. His 102.9 receiving yards per game were a program record and he was the only receiver in the ACC to have an average of over 100 yards in 2020. The Murfreesboro, N.C. native earned Second Team All-America honors from Pro Football Focus for his performance. PFF also ranked Roberson as the No. 6 wide receiver in the country entering the 2021 campaign.

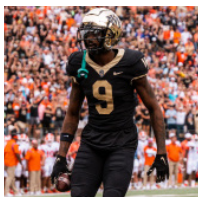

ZACH TOM

2021 | 2nd Team Phil Steele, The Athletic, FWA

Tom also earned First Team All-ACC honors from the league and associated press. The Prairieville, La. native was also voted as the Jim Tatum Award winner given annually in memory of the late Jim Tatum to the top senior student-athlete among the league's football players. He was a semifinalist for the prestigious William V. Campbell Trophy this season. In 2021, Tom played more than 1,100 plays and graded out at 94 percent for the season and graded out above 90 percent in every game this year. According to PFF, he had the highest pass blocking grade at 92.1 percent of any FBS offensive lineman who played over 25 snaps.

ALL-AMERICANS

AT PERRY

2022 | Honorable Mention Phil Steele

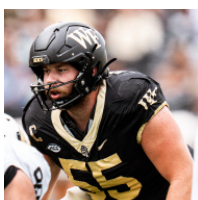

The redshirt junior becomes the sixth Demon Deacon offensive player in the last five years to be named an All-American. He posted a career-best 81 receptions during his historic 2022 campaign while finishing with 1,096 receiving yards, the first player in program history to have multiple 1,000-yard receiving seasons. His 81 catches is tied for the fourth most in school history and is the most since Ricky Proehl's (1986-89) previous program record of 25 receiving touchdowns in the first quarter against Syracuse before rewriting the record book with 5:07 remaining in the first half on a 29-yard touchdown pass from Sam Hartman. Perry snagged another touchdown grab late in the first half to give Wake Forest a 24-21 lead. His three touchdown receptions tied his career high and was the most of his historic 2022 season

KOBIE TURNER

2022 | Honorable Mention Pro Football Focus

Turner has regularly been one of the higher rated players by the publication this season including being ranked as the highest defensive lineman and defensive player overall for much of the regular season. Overall for the season in 2022, Turner has 34 tackles, 8.0 tackles-for-loss, one sack, eight QB hurries, two forced fumbles and one fumble recovered. He was named to the Pro Football Focus Midseason All-ACC Team, Turner has been scored at 91.1, which is the third-best overall rating for interior Power 5 defensive players in the entire nation. In the Deacs win over Army, Turner was graded as Wake Forest's best defender (92.0) by over 10 points and best pass rusher (94.4) by more than 15. That performance landed him on PFF's Week 6 Team of the Week.

MICHAEL JURGENS

2023 | Honorable Mention Phil Steele

Jurgens becomes the seventh Demon Deacon offensive player in the last six years to be named an All-American. In addition to earning Phil Steele All-America and All-ACC honors, he was also named to the official All-ACC team as voted on by media and coaches, the Associated Press All-ACC Team and the Pro Football Focus All-ACC Team. He only allowed one sack all season and committed just three penalties. He also ranked as the highest-graded Power-5 interior lineman according to Pro Football Focus with a grade of 83.7. Jurgens tallied 841 snaps in 2023, the second-most by any Demon Deacon on the team, starting all 12 games with 11 coming at guard and one coming at center. Over the course of his Wake Forest career, he played and started in 46 of the Deacs 48 games dating back to the start of the 2020 season, earning All-ACC honors each of the last three seasons. Additionally, he was named a Campbell Trophy Semifinalist for the second consecutive season and was named to the Outland Trophy Watch List ahead of the season.

Nick Sacrinty scored the first touchdown in Gator Bowl history.

1946 GATOR BOWL
January 1, 1946 • Jacksonville, FL

WF 26 C 14

Wake Forest's first-ever postseason appearance came in the inaugural Gator Bowl in Jacksonville, Fla., and Coach Peahead Walker's squad made that initial bowl trip a successful one, defeating South Carolina, 26-14. A crowd of more than 10,000 fans was on hand to witness the rematch between the two future ACC members who had played to a 13-13 tie earlier in the season. This time Wake took control at the outset, capping its opening possession with a three-yard run by Nick Sacrinty. A missed extra-point, however, resulted in the Gamecocks taking a 7-6 lead with the only score of the second quarter.

The Deacs regained the lead and took control in the second half behind their bruising ground attack. Rock Brinkley finished off two time-consuming drives with short TD runs of five and four yards, then Bob Smathers clinched the verdict with a 20-yard run on a reverse. The 378 yards rushing in the game stood as a Wake Forest single game record for 22 years. The victory culminated a dramatic turnaround season that had started with three straight losses but ended at 5-3-1.

Peahead Walker coached the Deacs to the Gator and Dixie

1949 DIXIE BOWL
January 1, 1949 • Birmingham, AL

BU 20 WF 7

Three years after competing in the first Gator Bowl, the Demon Deacons were invited to Birmingham, Ala., to compete in the second -- and last -- Dixie Bowl. Unlike that first postseason experience, though, this venture proved unfulfilling from a won-lost standpoint as Wake Forest dropped a hard-fought 20-7 contest to Baylor in what was frequently referred to at the time as the "Battle of the Baptists."

A crowd of over 20,000 was in attendance as Baylor jumped out to a 20-0 lead with three touchdowns in the first half, two coming on lengthy drives, the third following a long pass interception. The Deacs of Coach Peahead Walker refused to quit, however, and rallied to pull within striking distance on a TD by Mike Sprock in the third period after recovering a Baylor fumble. Wake went on to control most of the game and held the advantage statistically overall (six more first downs, 63 more yards in total offense), but never could reach paydirt again. The contest marked the first time that a Wake Forest football team had played in a January bowl game. The Demon Deacons finished the season with a 6-4 record.

After a 30-year absence from the bowl scene, Wake Forest completed one of the most surprising stories in college football in 1979 with a visit to the Tangerine Bowl in Orlando, Fla. The Demon Deacons earned that trip and a pairing against an emotional LSU squad, playing its final game under veteran coach Charlie McClendon by compiling an 8-3 regular season mark and attaining a national ranking in the top 20.

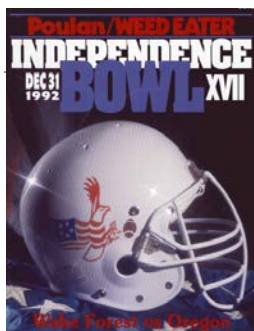

The Tigers seized the momentum early with touchdown drives on their first two possessions. Wake Forest, meanwhile, was struggling offensively and committed three turnovers before Phil Denfeld made the score 24-3 with a field goal as the first half ended.

Coach John Mackovic's Deacs came back to play much better after intermission, taking the second half kickoff and scoring their lone TD of the night on an eight-play drive that ended with a 34-yard pass from Jay Venuto to Wayne Baumgardner. Two other drives into LSU territory were halted, though, and the SEC power eventually built its advantage with 10 more points in the final period.

Wake Forest staged a stirring second half rally for a 39-35 victory over Oregon before 31,337 fans and a national television audience on ESPN, concluding a stunning year in appropriate fashion. The Deacons had been 1-3 in September until reeling off six straight wins to climb into the national polls for the first time in 13 years and capture the imagination of college football followers everywhere.

Oregon held the upper hand early, taking advantage of four first-half turnovers to build a 22-10 halftime lead, then adding another TD late in the third period that left the Deacs trailing, 29-10, with less than 20 minutes remaining in the game. Ned Moultrie scored on a short run, then Todd Dixon, who was named the game's Most Outstanding Player, exploded with TD receptions of 30 and 61 yards in less than four minutes to give his team a 31-29 edge that it would never relinquish. John Leach, who ran for 116 yards, added what proved to be the deciding score later in the final quarter. Dixon finished with five receptions for 166 yards and two TDs, while veteran coach Bill Dooley completed his outstanding career with victory No. 162.

1999 ALOHA BOWL

December 25, 1999 • Honolulu, HI

WF 23  3

A Wake Forest team anchored by 26 seniors earned the first winning season and first bowl bid in head coach Jim Caldwell's tenure. That veteran leadership helped the Deacs to an impressive 23-3 win over Arizona State in the nationally-televised Jeep Aloha Bowl on Christmas Day.

Both teams got off to a slow start offensively, and the score was tied 3-3 at intermission. The Deacs got rolling in the second half, however, blanking ASU 20-0. After another field goal, Wake broke the game open as quarterback Ben Sankey hit Coach's son, Jimmy Caldwell, across the middle, and Caldwell scampered 56 yards into the endzone. The Sun Devils managed just 42 yards of offense after that point, as Morgan Kane's 1-yard TD leap and Matt Burdick's third field goal provided the final margin.

Sankey earned Bowl MVP honors, passing for 188 yards and rushing for 56.

The Deacon defense was stifling, holding the Sun Devils to just 164 yards of total offense. Adrian Duncan led the defense with eight tackles and a sack, while Fred Robbins collected three sacks.

2002 SEATTLE BOWL

December 30, 2002 • Seattle, WA

WF 38  17

In his last game at WFU, James MacPherson passed for a season-high 241 yards and two touchdowns as the Deacons beat Oregon 38-17 in the Seattle Bowl.

MacPherson, who also ran for a score, hit Jason Anderson with TD tosses of 57 and 63 yards to earn MVP honors. Wake Forest (7-6) finished with a winning record for the second straight year. The Deacons last had consecutive winning seasons in 1987-88.

The second annual Seattle Bowl marked the first meeting between the Ducks and Demon Deacons since Dec. 31, 1992 in the Independence Bowl in Shreveport, La. Wake Forest also won that game, 39-35.

Entering the game, Wake Forest was ranked eighth nationally in rushing offense, averaging 239.9 yards a game. The Deacs ran for 256 against Oregon, even with their early emphasis passing.

The Ducks opened the game with a 45-yard field goal, but Wake Forest answered with a seven-play, 65-yard drive, topped by Ovie Mughelli's one-yard touchdown run.

MacPherson found Anderson for a 57-yard scoring pass early in the second quarter to push Wake's lead to 14-3. MacPherson also added a one-yard touchdown dash just before halftime.

MacPherson, who had just six touchdown passes going into the game, closed the third quarter with his 63-yard touchdown pass to Anderson. Chris Barclay added a 12-yard TD run late in the game for the final margin. Anderson caught three passes for a career-best 157 yards.

2006 ACC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

December 2, 2006 • Jacksonville, FL

WF 9 GT 6

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP) — Wake Forest's defensive players huddled near the sideline, pushing and shoving, yelling and screaming and jumping.

They were trailing 6-3 and ready to do something about it. Riley Swanson did.

Swanson intercepted a pass from Georgia Tech quarterback Reggie Ball on the next play, sparking a comeback that gave Wake its first ACC championship in 36 years.

Riley Skinner followed Swanson's pick with long completions on consecutive drives, setting up game MVP Sam Swank's final two field goals that gave No. 16 Wake Forest a 9-6 victory over 23rd-ranked Georgia Tech in the ACC title game.

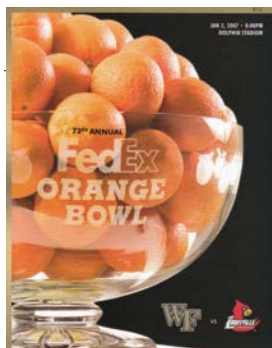

Skinner, who grew up in Jacksonville, finished 14-for-25 for 201 yards in his homecoming —and may have had the biggest cheering section in the stadium. He was sacked four times, but he came up big when the Demon Deacons needed it most.

He hooked up with John Tereshinski for a 39-yard gain on third-and-10, setting up Swank's second field goal, a 33-yarder with 8:27 to play. On the next possession, Skinner found Willie Idlette down the middle for a 45-yard gain, setting up a 22-yarder that turned out to be the game-winner.

2007 FEDEX ORANGE BOWL

January 2, 2007 • Miami, FL

Cardinal 24 WF 13

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Wake Forest finally ran out of magic.

All season long, the Deacons demonstrated an ability to conjure improbable victories in difficult situations, becoming the Cinderella of this year's Bowl Championship Series. But when they needed one final spark — in the biggest game of the year — they came up short.

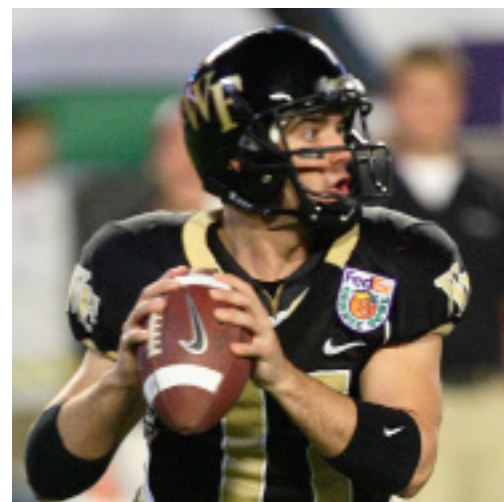

No. 15 Wake Forest lost 24-13 to No. 5 Louisville in the Orange Bowl in the Deacons' first BCS appearance. And for a team which made its name on winning the close games, losing one to end the season was tough to take.

The Deacons (11-3) entered as 10-point underdogs, and did an effective job of keeping Louisville quarterback Brian Brohm in check during the first half, holding him to 7-of-13 passing for 79 yards at halftime.

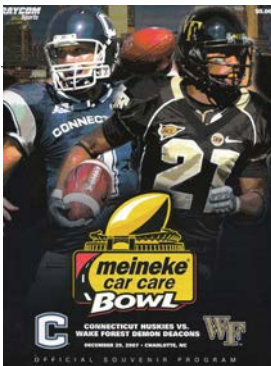

For a while, the redshirt freshman Skinner outdueled his higher-profile counterpart by completing 14 of his first 17 passes for 199 yards. His 30-yard touchdown pass to Nate Morton tied it at 10 early in the third quarter.

2007 MEINEKE CAR CARE BOWL

December 29, 2007 • Charlotte, NC

WF 24  10

CHARLOTTE, N.C. (AP) — Behind do-it-all receiver Kenneth Moore and a swarming defense full of big plays, Wake Forest rallied to beat fellow upstart Connecticut 24-10 in the Meineke Car Care Bowl.

The Demon Deacons had to come from behind to do it, reeling off the final 24 points after falling behind 10-0 at halftime against the Huskies, who were playing in only their second bowl game.

"We're not about losing anymore," Wake Forest cornerback Alphonso Smith said. "We're not about coming close or competing in a game."

Riley Skinner completed 29 of 38 passes for 268 yards, one touchdown and two interceptions, and ACC rookie of the year Josh Adams rushed for 81 yards and a score.

Linebacker Stanley Arnoux highlighted a series of big plays for Wake Forest with an interception and two fourth-down stops.

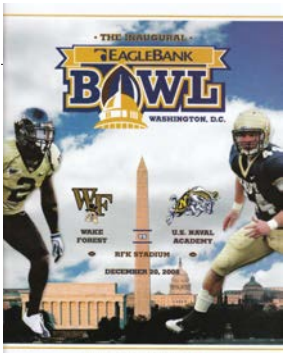

"Stanley Arnoux is one of those guys nobody talks about, but he might be our best defensive player," Grobe said.

Skinner put the Deacons ahead late in the third quarter by floating a pass to the left corner of the end zone for tight end John Tereshinski for a 20-yard TD.

2008 EAGLEBANK BOWL

December 20, 2008 • Washington, DC

WF 29  19

WASHINGTON (AP) — Riley Skinner found a perfect way to obliterate the miserable memory of his painful performance against Navy earlier this season.

Skinner went 11-for-11 and threw the go-ahead touchdown pass to Ben Wooster with 7:52 left, leading Wake Forest to a 29-19 comeback victory over the Midshipmen in the inaugural EagleBank Bowl to open the 2008 bowl season. He finished with 166 yards passing and was named the game's Most Valuable Player.

It was a rematch of a September game played at Wake Forest, when Navy took advantage of five turnovers by Skinner--four interceptions and a fumble--to pull off a 24-17 upset.

Navy scored the first 17 points in that game, but Skinner didn't flinch, directing Wake Forest (8-5) to a touchdown in the final minute of the first half and opened the third quarter with a 73-yard drive that ended with a 5-yard run by Josh Adams for a 14-13 lead.

Navy (8-5) went back in front when Kaipo-Noa Kaheaku-Enhada scored on a 2-yard run with 12:30 to go, but Skinner went 4-for-4 for 69 yards in an 80-yard drive that ended with his 8-yard pass to Wooster. Skinner then hit Devon Brown in the back of the end zone for the conversion that made it 22-19.

Kevin Harris rushed for 136 yards in his first start since 2006, and Josh Adams scored two touchdowns for Wake Forest.

Senior cornerback Alphonso Smith set an ACC record with his 21st career interception.

WF 17

NASHVILLE, Tenn. — Mississippi State withstood a late Wake Forest rally to down the Demon Deacons 23-17 in the Franklin American Mortgage Music City Bowl at LP Field in Nashville.

The Deacons (6-7) fell victim to Mississippi State's (7-6) potent rushing attack as Vick Ballard ran for a career-high 180 yards and two touchdowns to head up the Bulldogs' 255 yards on the ground.

The loss overshadowed a career day for Wake Forest redshirt sophomore Michael Campanaro who caught 10 passes for 128 yards - both career highs.

After the Deacs had fallen behind by two scores in the fourth quarter, Jimmy Newman nailed a 46-yard field goal with 3:24 remaining in the game to cut the MSU lead to six points and Wake Forest followed by forcing a three and out to get the ball back. But Tanner Price fired incomplete on three straight passes to give the ball back to the Bulldogs, who were able to run out the clock and secure the victory.

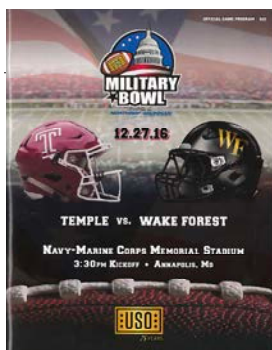

Wake Forest forced four turnovers, its second-highest total of the season. Two of them came on interceptions by Duran Lowe, the first of his career, and Merrill Noel, along with fumble recoveries by Nikita Whitlock and Kenny Okoro to keep the Deacons within striking distance for the entire contest.

ANNAPOLIS, Md. -- The Wake Forest football team jumped out to a 31-7 lead and held on to defeat No. 23-ranked Temple, 34-26, to claim the 2016 Military Bowl inside Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium on Tuesday, Dec. 27. The victory was the Demon Deacons' first bowl win since 2008, and the first victory over a ranked team since 2011.

After the Owls (10-4) cut Wake Forest's (7-6) lead to 31-26 with 3:39 remaining, John Armstrong returned a kickoff 80 yards, leading to a Mike Weaver field goal with 1:59 left.

Temple returned the kickoff to its own 47-yard-line and completed a 9-yard pass, but the Deacons' defense held strong with a pass breakup by Thomas Brown and a tackle for loss by Duke Ejiofor, then an incomplete pass for a turnover on downs. Wake Forest entered victory formation and twice took a knee to seal the win.

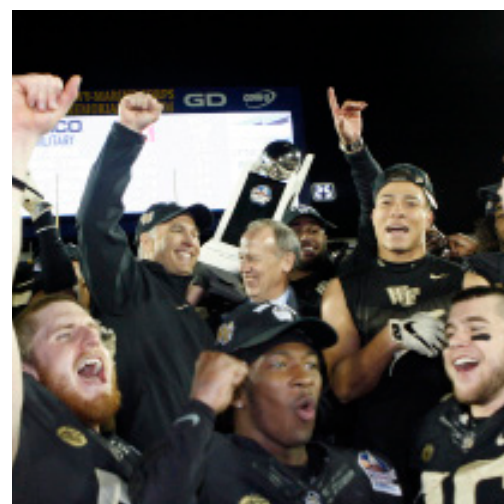

Brown was named the Military Bowl MVP for his efforts on defense. He tied for the team lead with seven tackles, also adding a sack, 2.5 TFLs and a forced fumble, helping the Deacons shut down the Owl rushing game, limited to -20 yards.

WF 55  52

CHARLOTTE, N.C. -- Wake Forest and Texas A&M engaged in the most entertaining bowl game of the season as the Demon Deacons came away with a 55-52 win over the Aggies on Dec. 29 in the Belk Bowl at Bank of America Stadium.

The game was a back-and-forth affair all afternoon and wasn't settled until Wake Forest running back Matt Colburn scored on a one-yard run with just 2:18 to play. The Deacon defense then forced the Aggies into a fourth down incomplection with 28 seconds remaining to seal the win.

The contest featured five lead changes and over 1,200 yards of total offense. The two teams combined to set NCAA bowl game records for total offense plays (191) and pass completions (74) by both teams. Wake Forest was led by quarterback John Wolford who, in his final college game, completed 32 of 49 passes for 400 yards and four touchdowns. Colburn had 150 yards on 21 carries including an electric 66-yard run. Wide receiver Scotty Washington caught nine passes for 138 yards and a score while tight end Cam Serigne had a touchdown reception to go with nine catches and 112 yards receiving.

Linebacker Jaboree Williams led the Deacon defense with 11 tackles and an interception while safety Cam Glenn and linebacker Justin Strnad each had 10 tackles in the contest.

2018 BIRMINGHAM BOWL

December 22, 2018 • Birmingham, Ala.

WF 37  34

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. -- Jamie Newman engineered his second last-second comeback victory in four starts as Wake Forest won its third straight bowl game with a 37-34 victory over Memphis in the Jared Birmingham Bowl.

Memphis led 34-30 with 1:15 remaining in the game. The Deacons started their final drive of the day at their own 25 as Newman drove them to the one-yard line behind completions of 49 and 20 yards to senior Alex Bachman, the latter giving Wake Forest a first and goal at the Memphis one. Newman scored the final touchdown, his third of the game, on a one-yard run with 34 seconds left to play.

Wake Forest had to overcome a 28-10 deficit after the Tigers returned an interception and a kickoff for touchdowns in the second quarter.

The Deacons rallied, as they did all season, scoring 20 unanswered points to take a 30-28 lead late in the third quarter behind a pair of Newman touchdown runs of 1 and 17 yards.

Newman earned MVP honors while Bachman finished with seven receptions for a career-high 171 yards. Freshman Nick Sciba was perfect on three field goal attempts including a career-long of 49 yards and contributed 13 of Wake Forest's 37 points. Junior Justin Strnad led the defense with 11 tackles and senior Demetrius Kemp recorded Wake Forest's lone interception.

NEW YORK – Despite three touchdown passes from quarterback Jamie Newman and a complete four-quarter battle, Wake Forest fell to Michigan State in the 2019 New Era Pinstripe Bowl, 27-21.

This marked the season finale for both teams.

Newman finished the game with 262 total yards including a team-high 87 yards on the ground.

The redshirt junior connected with eight different receivers on the night including senior Kendall Hinton and freshman Donovan Greene. Hinton and Greene led the Demon Deacons with three catches as both had a touchdown catch in the first half.

Freshman safety Trey Rucker led the way defensively, tying a career-high with 10 tackles. He had 10 tackles in the last two games of the 2019 season.

2020 DUKE'S MAYO BOWL

December 30, 2020 • Charlotte, N.C.

 42  28

CHARLOTTE, N.C. - The Wake Forest football team fell to Wisconsin, 42-28, in the Duke's Mayo Bowl on Wednesday afternoon.

The Deacs are now 15-12 all-time in neutral site games played in Charlotte. It snapped a three-game winning streak in the Queen City that included 2017 Belk Bowl and 2007 Meineke Car Care Bowl wins.

A four-game winning streak in October highlighted the Demon Deacons' run to a program record fifth-straight bowl appearance. The streak is the third longest in the ACC, trailing just Clemson and Miami (FL).

Redshirt junior wide receiver Jaquarii Roberson continued to cement his season as one of the best in Wake Forest history. The Murfreesboro, N.C. native caught a touchdown on his first three targets in the game, setting a new career best.

With 131 yards in the game, he became just the third player in program history to have four consecutive 100-yard receiving games, which also tied a program record. He joined Chris Givens in 2011 and Wayne Baumgardner in 1979 who each had streaks of four in their respective seasons.

2021 ACC CHAMPIONSHIP

December 4, 2021 • Charlotte, N.C.

Pitt 45 WF 21

CHARLOTTE – Wake Forest's 2021 season will be remembered following a 10-win regular season and an Atlantic Division Championship. The Demon Deacons' (10-3, 7-1 ACC) bid to bring home the ACC Championship fell short on Saturday, Dec. 4 as Pitt (11-2, 7-1 ACC) defeated Wake Forest, 45-21.

It was an exciting week for the Wake Forest program since claiming its second division crown at Boston College last Saturday, as All-ACC left tackle Zach Tom was announced as the league's 2021 Jim Tatum Award recipient and head coach Dave Clawson earned the league's Coach of the Year honor. Additionally, a program record 15 players were named to the league's All-ACC team.

Despite the loss on Saturday in the ACC Championship to Pitt, Wake Forest's 10-3 record this season marks the second time in program history that it has won double-digit games. With that, Coach Clawson is the only active Power 5 head coach in the country to win double-digit games in a single season at four different Division I institutions.

The Deacs earned their 10 victories against a difficult schedule that featured nine bowl-eligible programs. Wake Forest was the first school in the ACC to become bowl eligible with a perfect mark of 6-0 and the Deacs 8-0 start to the season was the best in school history in addition to having the longest winning streak in school history.

2021 GATOR BOWL

December 31, 2021 • Jacksonville, Fla.

R 10 WF 38

JACKSONVILLE -- The 2021 Wake Forest football team capped off its historic season on New Year's Eve, defeating Big Ten foe Rutgers in the 77th annual TaxSlayer Gator Bowl 38-10 inside TIAA Bank Field on Friday.

No. 17 Wake Forest (11-3, 7-1 ACC) became just the second team in program history to win double-digit games and tied the program record with 11 victories while also setting a program record with seven conference victories and finished the home season with a perfect 6-0 mark.

Head Coach Dave Clawson became the first coach in program history to win four bowl games as all four titles have come during the Deacs current six-game bowl appearance streak. This run ranks as the second-longest in the ACC, trailing just Clemson.

The Deacs forced Rutgers (5-8, 2-7 Big Ten) to turn the ball over twice as Zion Keith and Gavin Holmes snared their first interceptions of the season. The Deacs limited the Scarlet Knights to just 271 total yards in the game, including 106 yards rushing.

Redshirt sophomore quarterback Sam Hartman ended his historic single-season campaign with Gator Bowl MVP honors. The Charlotte, N.C. native tossed three touchdown passes in the game and threw for 304 yards.

Fellow redshirt sophomore A.T. Perry collected 10 of Hartman's passes for 127 yards and pulled in his 15th touchdown reception of the season, tied for the fifth most in conference history.

Seniors Traveon Redd and Luke Masterson led Wake Forest's defense with seven tackles apiece in their final game in the Old Gold & Black.

TAMPA – Behind a three-touchdown performance from Sam Hartman as he earned MVP honors on Friday night, Wake Forest defeated Southeastern Conference representative Missouri 27-17 to win the Union Home Mortgage Gasparilla Bowl at Raymond James Stadium in Tampa, Fla. The win marked Wake Forest's fifth in the last seven years since the Deacs began the Atlantic Coast Conference's second-longest bowl streak back in 2016.

Head coach Dave Clawson's five bowl victories, which is the most in school history, now ranks tied for fifth in ACC history for postseason wins. Clawson ranks behind Bobby Bowden (Florida State, 11), Dabor Swinney (Clemson, 11), Frank Beamer (Virginia Tech, 6) and Danny Ford (Clemson, 6). Meanwhile, he is now tied with Jimbo Fisher (Florida State, 5) and Ralph Friedgen (Maryland, 5).

Hartman earned his second-straight bowl game MVP honor, as he garnered the accolade following his standout performance against Rutgers in the TaxSlayer Gator Bowl in 2021.

With that, the Charlotte, N.C. native is the first player in program history to earn two bowl game MVPs in their career at Wake Forest.

Overall for the game, Hartman completed 23-of-36 passes for 280 yards and three touchdown passes. His five-yard touchdown throw to redshirt sophomore Taylor Morin in the first quarter set a new Atlantic Coast Conference record for career TD passes. The scoring toss was his 108th of his storied career as he passed Clemson's Tahj Boyd for the league record.
